ALTERMONDE

Harry Bozino (Writer)
Paolo Antiga (Artist)
Formats: 104 pages – 24x 32 cm – Color – One Shot – January 2026
Rights sold: French

A tale of anticipation, unsettlingly relevant today!
2112. The world has been ravaged by a hostile climate. Only a handful of privileged citizens live decently, protected by their City, whose walls keep out invaders... But one day, the fortified city itself collapses in flames. Amid a desert of ashes, a father and his daughter flee the ruins of a world that believed itself safe from everything, to try to survive among the very people the City once protected them from.

KEY POINTS:

- A one-shot loosely adapted from the novel Nos Altermondes by Nicolas Debandt, published by Éditions de l'Homme Sans Nom.
- Acclaimed screenwriter and comics writer Harry Bozino delivers a fast-paced, ultra-realistic science fiction plot, brought to life by the realistic precision of illustrator Paolo Antiga.
- Powerful themes that are more relevant than ever: mass migration, eco-anxiety, climate crises, resource distribution, and generational divide.

ENCELADUS

Romain Benassaya (Writer)
Joan Urgell (Artist)

Formats: 96 pages – 24 x 32 cm – Color – One Shot – May 2026

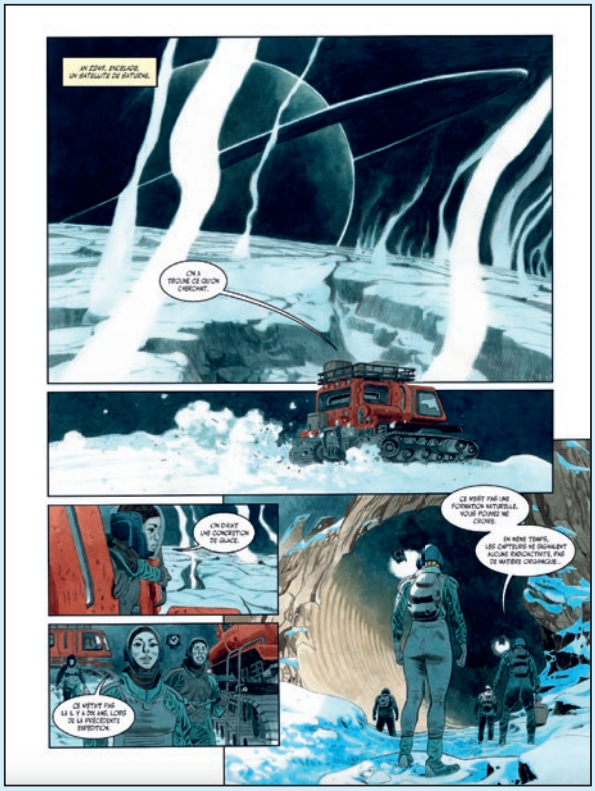

Rights sold: French, Polish

As humanity prepares to cross a frontier forbidden by the laws of physics, another, more fragile boundary threatens to give way: that of reason!

In 2247, on Enceladus, a discovery forever alters the fate of Sorany Desvœux: a crystal of unknown origin, a living enigma and source of prodigious energy. Ten years later, this material fuels an unprecedented interstellar exodus. Aboard the Arca XVII, a vast ark carrying 36,000 souls toward a new world, Sorany finds herself at the heart of mounting tensions. As they approach the 'Threshold of Jupiter,' anomalies and a clandestine religious fervor shake the mission. Faith and reason collide when a cult sees the crystal as a sacred relic—and Sorany as the instrument of a higher purpose. A taut science-fiction thriller that explores the line between science and belief, and the myths humanity carries with it into the unknown.

KEY POINTS:

- A masterful sci-fi one-shot by the creative team behind Arca.
- A multifaceted story exploring scientific exploration, politics, religion, and rebellion.
- Joan Urgell's sublime artwork in traditional style and direct coloring.
- Adapted from a novel that sold over 13,000 copies, by its author, Romain Benassaya.

HEGEMON

Thierry Gloris (Writer)
Joel Mouclier (Artist)

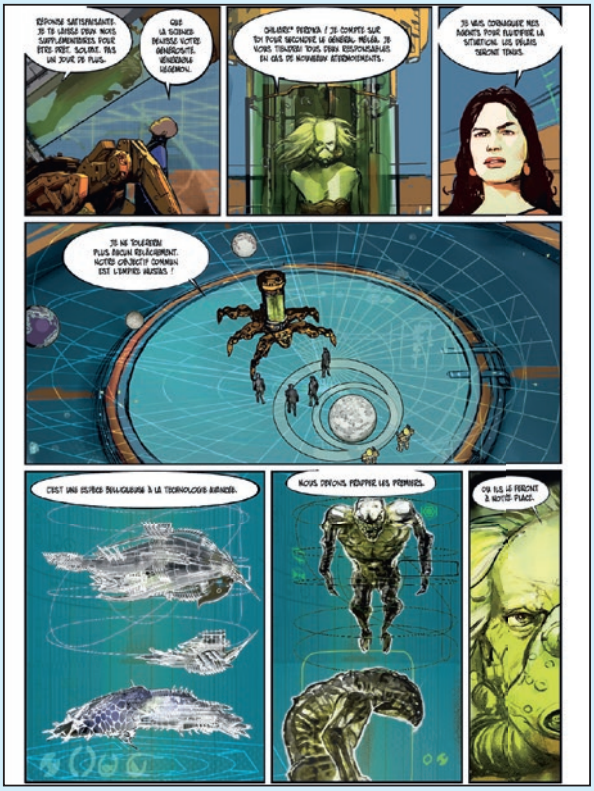

Formats: 108 pages – 24 x 32 cm – Color – One Shot – March 2026
Rights sold: French

A space-opera tale where political conspiracy collides with the mysteries of religious cosmogony, and the quest for immortality leads to chaos!
In a distant future, the Sapiens Empire, ruled with an iron fist by Hegemon Iskender, is a galactic power built on blood and the conquest of the Farxi Empire. But when the centuries-old tyrant is assassinated, civil war breaks out. Caught between a supremacist military caste, legitimate and illegitimate heirs, and the regent's scheming, the scientist Silas Ditak must navigate the labyrinth of conspiracy to find the killer—and avert a cosmic threat.

KEY POINTS:

- A spectacular space-opera tale.
- A reinterpretation of the fall of Alexander the Great.
- Features the visual and narrative conventions of classic science fiction, sure to appeal to genre fans.
- A rich and well-constructed universe.

HOURGLASS

Dimitri Lernoud, a.k.a. TAR (Writer & Art)

Formats: 272 pages – 15 x 21 cm – Color – One Shot – September 2025

Rights sold: French

Four heroines travel through time in a highly promising debut science fiction graphic novel.

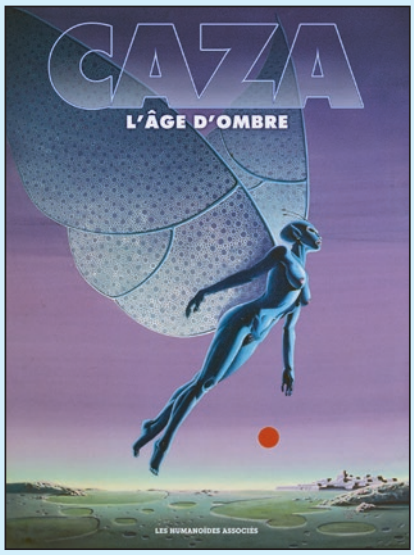

Held captive by the military, scientists Ana and Bonnie are forced to build a time machine meant to stop the raging World War: Project Hourglass. But their fellow captives Diane and Carina push them toward rebellion. Together, they will do everything they can to escape the bunker-city that serves as their prison. With the war ongoing, constant surveillance, soldiers, and giant robots, the only way out of their dystopian present seems to be a flight into their world's future.

KEY POINTS:

- Sensitively blends hard science fiction, dystopia, and human drama.
- A story of sisterhood led by endearing, well-constructed, and credible heroines.
- A fast-paced narrative for this 272-page page-turner.

THE AGE OF SHADOW

Caza (Writer & Art)

Formats: 112 pages – 24 x 32 cm – Color – One Shot – June 2025

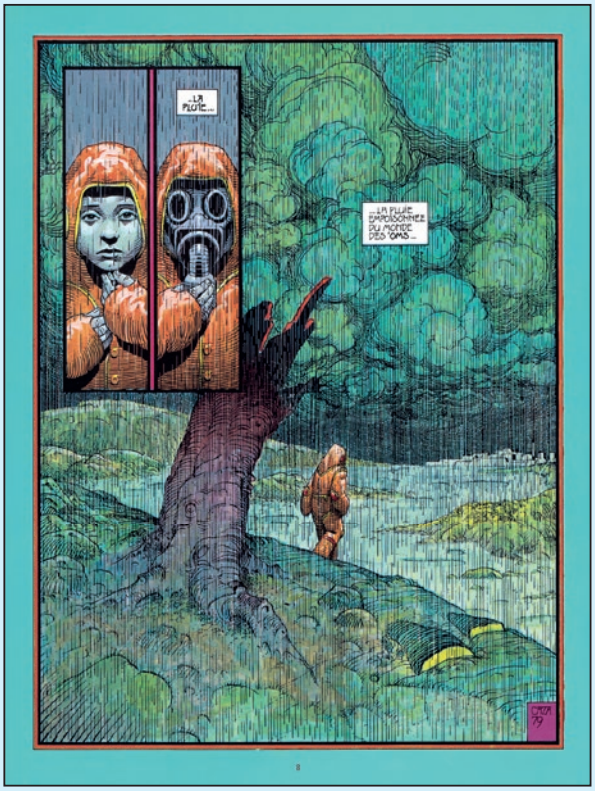

Rights sold: English, French, German, Polish, Serbian

A collection of short stories by Caza, set in the post-apocalyptic sci-fi universe of the world of the 'Oms.

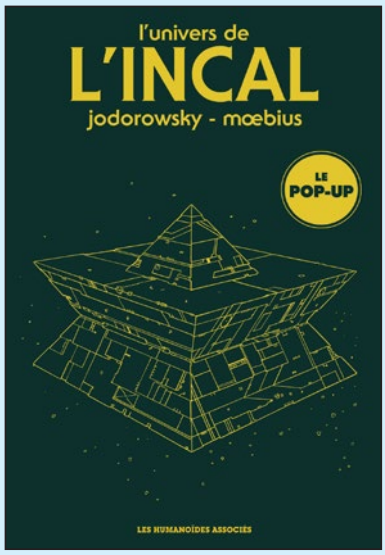

Before the Age of the Mass described in The World of Arkadi, there was the Age of Shadow, a time when the Earth still rotated, but ever more slowly, giving way to climate disasters. One by one, the cities of the 'Oms perish, some falling victim to their own decline, others to the subtle intrusions of the "others"—elemental beings devoid of both pity and hatred, simply impatient to reclaim what is theirs: the Earth. A set of strange, poetic, lyrical short stories with a deeply human perspective.

KEY POINTS:

- Companion volume to Arkadi and the Lost Titan (Le Monde d'Arkadi et Nocturnes)
- A collection of short stories pre-published in Pilote between 1979 and 1983, unavailable for years and never before released by Les Humanoïdes Associés.
- A new digitization from the restored original plates.
- Follows in the footsteps of The World of Arkadi's anniversary complete edition, which sold out two months after release.
- An expanded edition featuring new bonus material by Caza and enhanced cover art.

THE INCAL: THE POP-UP BOOK

Alejandro Jodorowsky (Writer)
Mœbius (Artist)

Formats: 12 pages – 21.5 x 30.5 cm – Color – One Shot, Pop-Up – December 2025

Rights sold: English, French, German, Serbian

The masterpiece by Jodorowsky and Mœbius, for the first time ever as a collectible pop-up book.

Discover—or rediscover—the essential world of The Incal through six three-dimensional double-page spreads, thanks to a beautifully crafted pop-up that retraces John Difool's adventure in six stages: the beginning, the allies, the antagonists, the cosmic journey, the final battle, and the spiritual journey. Mœbius's unrivaled artwork and Jodorowsky's singular storytelling are showcased from an angle never seen before!

KEY POINTS:

- A fun, original, and carefully crafted format, perfect for a highly collectible gift.
- Pop-up books remain a huge hit, not just with younger readers but across geek culture too, as seen with franchises like Stranger Things, Game of Thrones, and Harry Potter.
- Six three-dimensional double-page spreads bring the world of The Incal to life like never before.

THE TECHNOPRIESTS: GENESIS

Alejandro Jodorowsky (Writer)
Zoran Janjetov (Artist)

Formats: 96 pages – 24 x 32 cm – Color – One Shot – January 2027

Rights sold: French

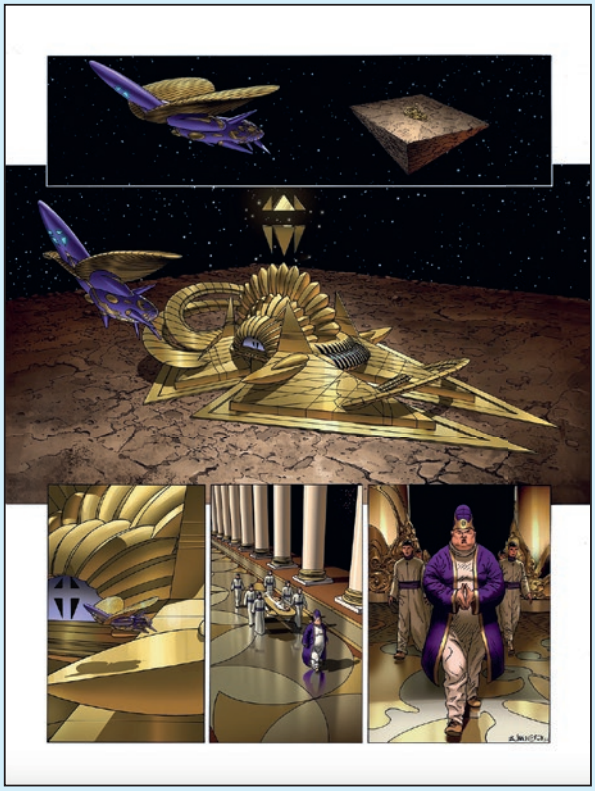

Twenty years after the release of the last volume of The Technopriests, Alejandro Jodorowsky and Zoran Janjetov join forces once again to recount the genesis of their epic sci-fi saga, in a story that is at once chaotic and mystical, violent and luminous.

Amid the ruins of a theocratic galaxy ruled by a grotesque despot—raised as a child by a tyrannical mother—outcasts with extraordinary powers forge a spiritual and technological resistance. This prequel graphic novel bears all the hallmarks of Jodorowsky's genius: sharp political satire, a cosmic journey of initiation, and absolute love as the driving force of history. Janjetov's vivid artwork enhances every page.

KEY POINTS:

- The grand return of Jodorowsky and Janjetov, the legendary duo behind Before The Incal and The Technopriests.
- A never-before-seen prequel that sheds light on the entire saga (450,000 copies sold).
- A two-part volume: an 80-page graphic novel and a beautifully illustrated short story.
- Zoran Janjetov's artwork, which displays remarkable artistic maturity.
- A story of epic and universal scope, blending mythology, political satire, and metaphysics.
- A story bearing the unmistakable mark of Jodorowsky's imagination.

MORTÉPI

Florian Breuil (Writer & Art)

Formats: 160 pages – 22 x 29 cm – Color – One Shot – April 2026

Rights sold: French

What if the only way to be recognized was to die?

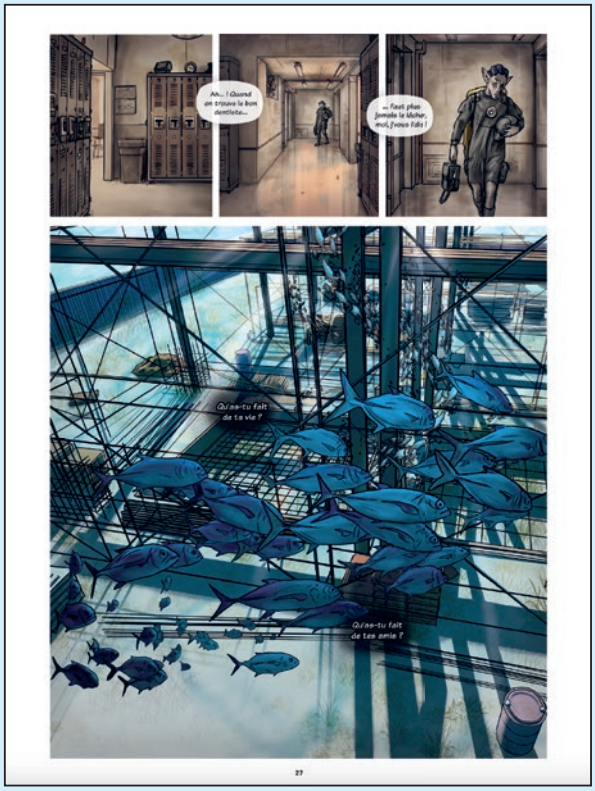

Mortépi, a failed artist consumed by guilt, dreams of posterity in a world that's drowning. Amid deception, personal tragedy, and betrayal, his brutal downfall is hastened by Nastassia, a jaded critic who was meant to champion his success. In one final act of self-obsession, Mortépi takes his own life before the eyes of his best friend, Niehling, hoping to achieve posthumous glory.

A dark, cruel tale—an acidic, clear-eyed drama about failure, vanity, art, and ego.

KEY POINTS:

- The first graphic novel by a promising new author, offering a reflection on art, ego, grief, and friendship within a dystopian universe.
- A multi-layered story with anthropomorphic characters readers will delight in hating, or loving.
- The sumptuous artwork of Florian Breuil.
- In the vein of the bestselling Carbone & Silicium by Mathieu Bablet.

SPIRE

Laurent Genefort (Original Work)
Luc Brunschwig (Writer)
Adrien Villesange (Artist)

Formats: 112 pages – 24 x 32 cm – Color – One Shot – October 2026

Rights sold: French

After crashing at the edge of known space, Leenor gets back in the game and assembles a rebel space-transport crew to take on the sprawling, all-powerful AlianCo.

When Leenor Guérin and her crew crash-land on Arrhenius—an underdeveloped planet at the far reaches of space—and are left with nothing by the hegemonic AlianCo, they choose to rebel. Together with her co-pilot Hummel, she decides to build a network of independent haulers to supply the outer reaches and all those left behind. But building such a network and recruiting a trustworthy crew is no easy task—and mostly brings its share of trouble and enemies.

KEY POINTS:

- Adapted from Laurent Genefort's acclaimed science-fiction series, Spire combines fast-paced space opera with social conflict, galactic geopolitics, and richly imagined alien worlds.
- A self-contained story with sequel potential.
- A breathless, human-scaled space-opera adventure.

FANG, VOL. 2: IN PURSUIT OF ALDAFAOR

Joe Kelly (Writer)
Niko Henrichon (Artist)
Formats: 56 pages – 24 x 32 cm – Color – Vol. 2 – October 2025
Rights sold: Dutch, English, French, German, Russian

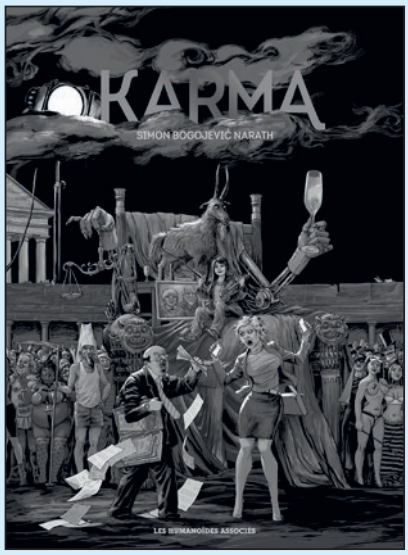

A new adventure for Fang, the demon-hunting fox.
In a world where humans and talking animals coexist, Fang the fox has been given a heavy burden: fighting the demons that possess the weak and the tormented. She can now count on the support of her friends—Weï-Tzu the deer and Rong the bear—to help her in this task, and to keep her from losing herself while carrying it out. Together, will they be able to overcome a thousand-headed demon?

KEY POINTS:

- Written by A-list comics and animation creator Joe Kelly (Ben 10, Big Hero 6).
- A self-contained adventure led by a touching heroine.
- An animal world tinged with medieval Chinese fantasy folklore, magnified by evocative watercolor coloring.
- By Niko Henrichon, the artist behind The Metabaron (with Jerry Frissen), Pride of Baghdad, and Spectators (both with Brian K. Vaughan).

KARMA

Simon Bogojevic Narath (Writer & Art)

Formats: 96 pages – 24 x 32 cm – B&W – One Shot – June 2026

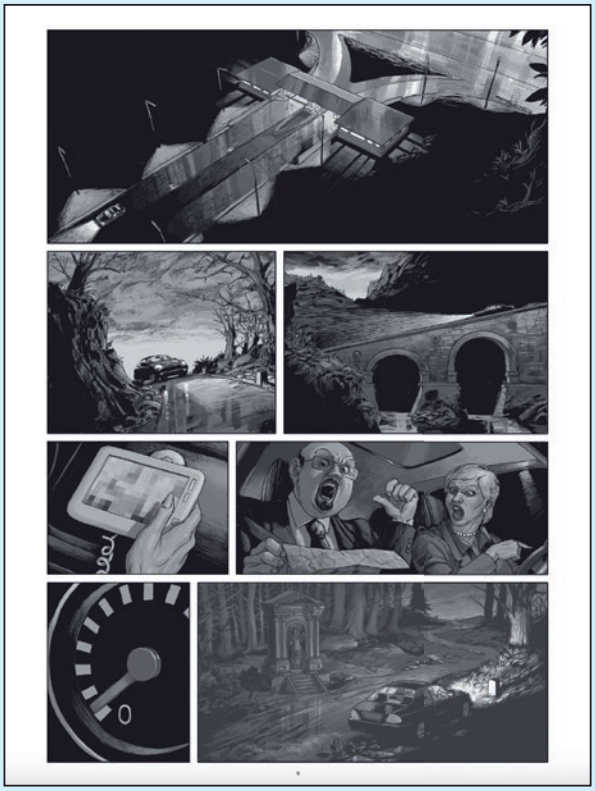

Rights sold: French

What if social violence called for an even more terrible violence – a karmic violence?

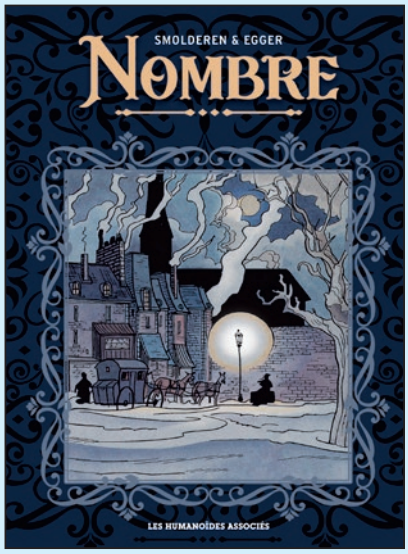

On one side, two bailiffs—cold representatives of a merciless system—caught up in a carnivalesque world that turns their power into weakness and their wrongdoing into torment. On the other, a child thrown onto the streets, forced to survive, then to rebuild herself through an extreme artistic discipline. The book unfolds a relentless mirrored narrative, in which time stretches out suffering and deepens physical and moral transformation. Monstrousness here is not merely supernatural—it is born of guilt, cowardice, and the inability to change. Refusing any simplistic morality, the story questions the notion of forgiveness and asserts a radical vision: some wrongs cannot be erased.

KEY POINTS:

- A special one-shot from a Metal Hurlant contributor.
- A disturbing, contemporary, and silent macabre tale.
- The realistic, ultra-detailed artwork of Simon Bogojevic Narath.
- For mature readers only (eroticism and extreme violence).

NUMBER

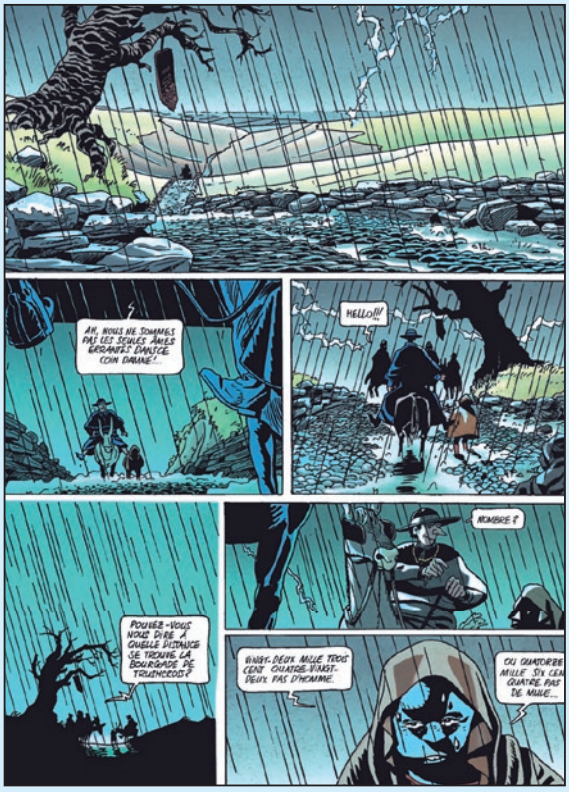

Thierry Smolderen (Writer)
Egger (Artist)
Formats: 104 pages – 19.4 x 26.7 cm – Color – Omnibus edition – January 2026
Rights sold: French

In the heart of the English moors of the 19th century, a mysterious man-eating monster terrorizes the region. But is the ogre truly responsible for all these disappearances?

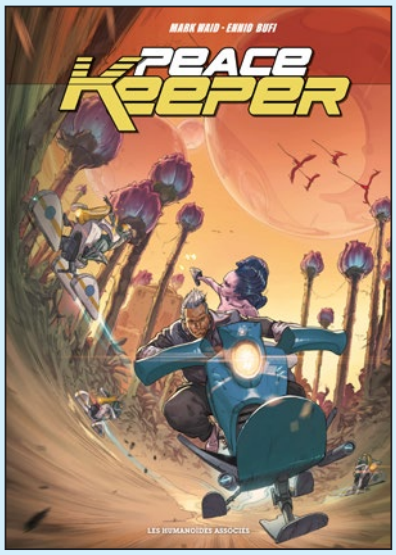

Dive into this century of great scientific discovery and follow the adventures of Ada, a brilliant young woman whose fate seems tied to that of this mysterious ogre. A sublime story about difference, intolerance, and the great minds who shaped the modern era. Let yourself be swept away by this strange, fantastical tale, somewhere between Sherlock Holmes and the Brothers Grimm.

KEY POINTS:

- From prolific writer Thierry Smolderen (Dark Rage, Olivier Varèse, Convoi).
- New omnibus edition.

PEACEKEEPER, VOL. 1

Mark Waid (Writer)
Ennio Bufi (Artist)
Formats: 56 pages – 24 x 32 cm – Color – Vol. 1 – January 2027
Rights sold: French

Peacekeeper Jarl Lightstar just wants to go on vacation… but first, he has to stop an interplanetary atomic war!

In a spacefaring future where countless civilizations coexist, the smallest incident can quickly spiral into a diplomatic crisis and spark interstellar conflict. To preserve the galaxy's stability, one organization stands watch: the Peacekeepers. Part diplomats, part law enforcement, they step into the heart of tensions to restore dialogue and maintain peace. Jarl Lightstar, a Peacekeeper for seventeen years and on the verge of burnout, dreams of only one thing: going on vacation. But peace comes first, as always. Jarl is dispatched on what looks like just another routine mission…

KEY POINTS:

- Writer Mark Waid is a legend of American comics (Kingdom Come, The Flash, Superman: Birthright).
- A fast-paced diplomatic space opera blending the interstellar diplomacy of Babylon 5, the geopolitical tension of The Expanse, and the alien law enforcement of Men in Black.
- A self-contained story with a sequel already in the works.

KAIJU HEART

Touffe (Writer & Art)

Formats: 152 pages – 17.7 x 24.5 cm – Color – One Shot – August 2026

Rights sold: French

What if the real monster wasn't the kaiju?

Hiro leads a quiet life on a remote island with Grandpa Roni, the man he considers his father. But when Tribone's army arrives in search of the legendary kaiju Tipiaku, his world is turned upside down. Caught up in a conflict far bigger than himself, Hiro gradually discovers that he is connected to the kaijus in a much deeper way than he ever imagined. Between mecha battles and titanic creatures: a moving, explosive adventure where alliance becomes an act of resistance.

KEY POINTS:

- An island-based world blending kaiju, humans, and mechs.
- Artwork by Touffe, a rising star in animation, blending cartoon and manga styles.
- A powerful, determined main character.
- A highly engaging story told in a single volume.

DIRTY DEEDS

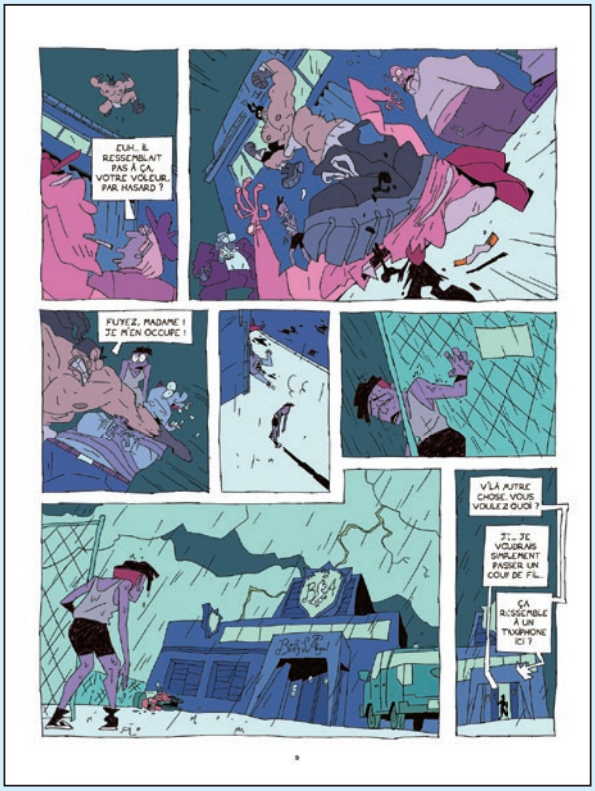

Eldiablo (Writer)
Nico Gems (Artist)
Formats: 440 pages – 19.8 x 26.7 cm – Color – One Shot – March 2026
Rights sold: French

Four gangsters, a stripper, a cop, and a failed vigilante… Seven intertwined fates in a multi-voiced tale, leading to the organization's spectacular downfall.

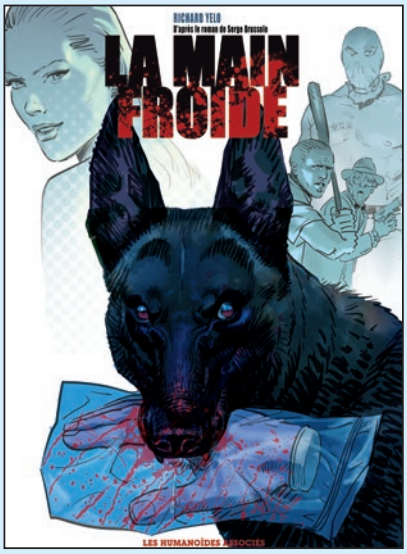

Don Burine doesn't know it yet, but his empire is about to collapse. Zara, an indebted stripper, has bewitched Gabino, the boss's right-hand man. Cesare, his left-hand man, is meanwhile plotting to seize control of the gang. But Amanda, the boss's wife, also wants to hold the reins. Sam Doomis is out to bring down the gang in hopes of an honorable return to the L.A. police. El Chupacabra, a failed vigilante, keeps watch to enforce justice and protect Burine, whom he sees as a benefactor. Add to that the rival Mendoza gang, eager to seize control of the city, and all the ingredients are in place for an explosive downfall!

KEY POINTS:

- A thrilling story by veteran writer Eldiablo (Carcajou, Les Lascars), whose writing remains as fresh as ever.
- Intertwining human stories blending vice, mischief, jealousy, and action, building to a grand finale.
- A dynamic and highly cinematic art style.

THE COLD HAND

Richard Yelo (Writer & Art)

Formats: 128 pages – 24 x 32 cm – Color – One Shot – January 2027

Rights sold: French

A femme fatale, a con artist with a golden voice, and a supernatural dog… The heist of the century that spirals into chaos.

In 1990s Los Angeles, between luxury mansions and the Mexican border, Dorona orchestrates a wild heist against her own husband.

Adapted from Serge Brussolo's novel, La Main Froide is an American-style noir thriller driven by a cast of eccentric characters: a Las Vegas impersonator on his last legs, an icy femme fatale, a disillusioned war surgeon, a taciturn giant with a scarred face, and a retired police dog whose intelligence surpasses that of all his human adversaries.

KEY POINTS:

- A faithful and ambitious adaptation of a novel by Serge Brussolo, a French author of crime and fantasy fiction with an extraordinary imagination.
- Realistic, cinematic artwork by Richard Yelo, which precisely captures the sunny yet unsettling atmosphere of 1990s Los Angeles.
- A sophisticated narrative structure with interlocking character portraits, giving each character genuine psychological depth, but which cleverly plays with the conventions of the genre.
- The character of Dust, a supernatural dog, embodies all the story's unease and is far more than just a pet.

THE CLOUD

Efra Pérez (Writer & Art)

Formats: 120 pages – 19.8 x 26.7 cm – Color – One Shot – May 2026

Rights sold: French

Between a coming-of-age quest, questions of heritage, political awakening, science and rebellion, Estela will change her kingdom forever.

In the kingdom where Estela and her mother live, a terrible cloud devastates the countryside every eight years, forcing the people to rebuild everything each time it passes. Estela's mother, a brilliant engineer, tragically disappears while trying to put an end to this scourge. Years later, Estela decides to follow in her footsteps and leaves to study engineering in the capital, a haven of peace and knowledge – the only place spared by the cloud. Helped by her new friends, she gradually discovers that the city is far from as perfect as its people claim, and that a dark secret surrounds the cloud's true origin.

KEY POINTS:

- A well-crafted, subtle debut graphic novel for middle-grade readers and up.
- Rich with themes of coming-of-age, family ties, ecology, politics, and inclusivity.
- Endearing, colorful characters, including a heroine who dreams of becoming an engineer.

THE SNOW QUEEN

Lola Koenig (Writer & Art)
Formats: 72 pages – 19.8 x 26.7 cm – Color – One Shot – February 2026
Rights sold: French

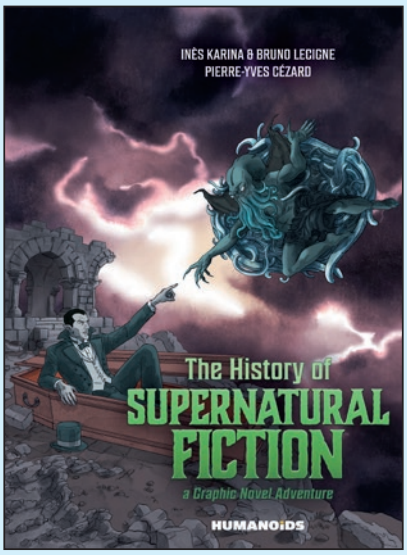

Ida's journey into the heart of the ice, where only kindness can triumph over darkness.
To save her life, Ida journeys toward the mysterious Vallons of the Far North. Amid storms, bandits, wolves, and fabled beings, she discovers, alongside Fox and Aïko, that winter is born from the suffering of a wounded goddess. Faced with the creature's agony, Ida realizes the answer lies not in violence but in empathy—a choice that will change her fate, and that of the world.

KEY POINTS:

- An authentic Danish fairy tale.
- A rich, fast-paced coming-of-age story marking the transition from childhood to adolescence.
- The first young-adult graphic novel from an author with great promise.

THE HISTORY OF SUPERNATURAL FICTION

Bruno Lecigne & Inès Karina (Writers)
Pierre-Yves Cézard (Artist)
Formats: 224 pages – 19.8 x 26.7 cm – Color – One Shot – November 2026

An essential graphic guide to a genre, its history, its defining works, and its darkest secrets.
From Walpole, Polidori, and Lovecraft to Stephen King, Japanese ghosts, and the tales of Pu Songling, this richly researched graphic journey traces supernatural fiction across eras, cultures, and traditions.

KEY POINTS:

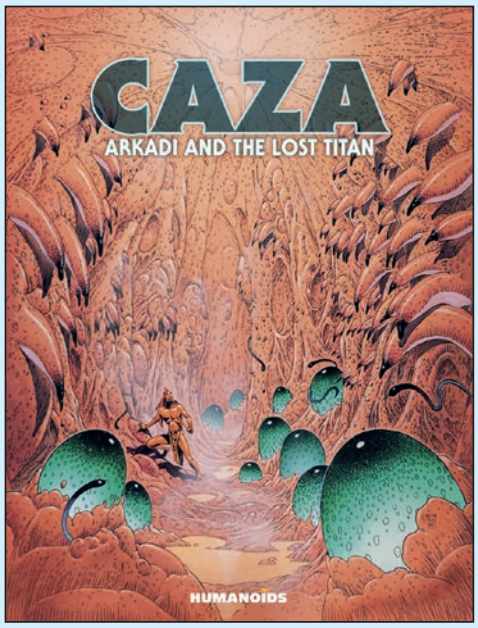

- A worldwide panorama of more than three centuries of supernatural literature, guided by the Crypt Keeper and enriched with reading and film recommendations.
- The latest volume in the collection that began with The History of Science Fiction: A Graphic Novel Adventure, translated into eight languages.

RECENT RELEASES

ARKADI AND THE LOST TITAN (LE MONDE D'ARKADI ET NOCTURNES)

Caza

Formats: 528 pages – hardcover – 22 x 29 cm – color – 10 volumes series
October 2024
Rights sold: English, French, Polish, Russian

A leading author of Métal Hurlant and a master of sci-fi and fantasy comics since the 1970s, Caza's works explore the themes of art and the quest for self through this great science fiction saga published by Les Humanoïdes Associés in the late 1980s.

For 10,000 years, the Earth has stopped rotating on its own axis, condemning humanity to either darkness or the extreme temperatures of the sun. Some people survive within the walls of Dis, the great domed city located at the center of Night, worshiping robots that have become deities: the Titans. The others live on Twilight, a zone of eternal gloam in which danger and violence reign. On this desolate Earth, in order to understand where his strange power comes from, Arkadi will have to leave everything behind and embark on a quest for the truth.

KEY POINTS:

- For the first time, the complete collection of the 9 books of Le Monde d'Arkadi + the prequel Nocturnes.
- A sweeping science fiction fantasy saga that borrows heavily from mythology.
- Silver lamination on the book (shine effect on the cover), 528 color pages printed on beautiful offset paper.
- Edition enhanced with bonus material created by Caza throughout the making of this epic tale.

COMETA

Elie Huault

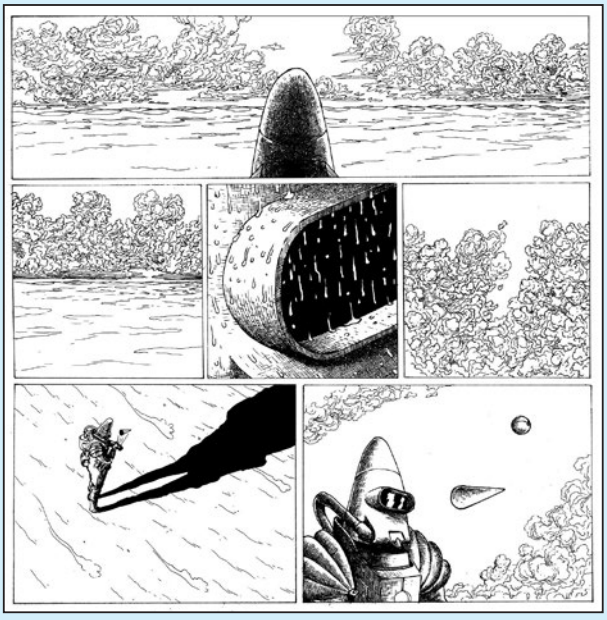

Formats: 52 pages – Hardcover – 29 x 29cm – B&W – One Shot – 2025
Rights sold: French

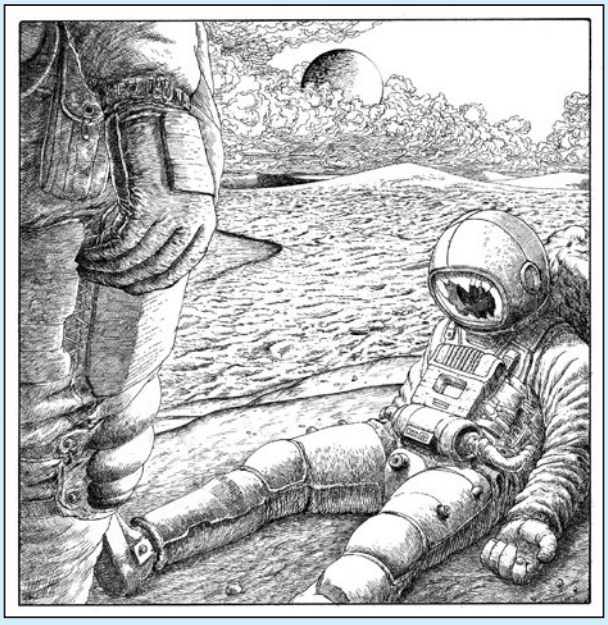

Follow the poetic and contemplative walk of an astronaut who tries to leave a strange and hostile planet on which his ship has crashed.
An astronaut is sent to the planet Xo to recover a mysterious artifact and investigate the fate of his predecessor tasked with the same mission. But the planet does not seem ready to accept the astronaut's departure so easily. Defined as a work that's halfway between illustration and comic book, the story unfolds to the rhythm of the astronaut's unsettling walk of discovery, eschewing fast cutting in favor of a more contemplative style.

To make it off the planet, our character will be forced to constantly adapt to the universe that presents itself to him: but isn't that what traveling is actually all about?

KEY POINTS:

- The very first "baby" of Métal Hurlant!
- A gem of illustration entirely created with India ink.
- A story with bold narration that combines suspense and poetry.

Rights sold: Dutch, English, French

In a post-apocalyptic Europe struck down by a virus that has plunged humanity into 20-hour sleep cycles, a woman embarks on a dangerous journey to find a cure.

Since the emergence of the Morpheus virus, humanity has been condemned to twenty hours of sleep per day. To try and survive this chaos, the major capitals have declared their independence in a Europe on the brink of implosion. In Prague, the mercenary Juliette tries to provide a decent life for her daughter by taking on perilous missions and using drugs to stay awake. Her encounter with Professor Ivanov gives her renewed hope of eradicating the virus and saving her daughter. Thus begins a frantic race for them across the European no-man's land, with several armed groups on their trail…

KEY POINTS:

- Adaptation of The Arms of Morpheus from French publisher L'Homme Sans Nom.
- Firmly grounded in reality: a realistic vision of Europe and of futuristic political issues that resonate with our current world.

SOCIAL FICTION

Chantal Montellier

Formats: 200 pages – Hardcover – 24 x 32 cm – Color– One Shot – September 2024

Rights sold: French

Discover, or rediscover, the punk-feminist universe of Chantal Montellier! With these three pioneering titles, dive into futuristic stories with a post-apocalyptic feel that is still frighteningly relevant today, in which authoritarianism, eugenics and discrimination know no limits.

Social Fiction is a collection of three major works by Chantal Montellier: Wonder City, Shelter Market and 1996. Published between 1978 and 1983, they remain relevant and of unprecedented accuracy thirty years later. Wonder City will take you into the heart of a eugenicist city under widespread video surveillance, while Shelter Market will immerse you in the basement of a shopping center that has been transformed into an atomic shelter in which a store manager takes on the role of a new dictator. 1996 brings together several short stories with a social, political or philosophical theme. Three chilling, political, and profoundly feminist stories. Social Fiction gives you all the arsenal necessary to appreciate the power of Chantal Montellier's work.

KEY POINTS:

- Chantal Montellier, a subversive, punk and feminist artist who is more relevant than ever.
- A collection of three visionary works of science fiction that have not been reissued for 40 years (in the case of Wonder City and 1996).
- A new title in the prestigious collection of the great authors of Métal Hurlant (including Mœbius, Caza, Crespin).
- Featuring texts by Marie Bardiaux Vaïente and Camille de Singly.

Cesc F. Dalmases (Artist)

Formats: 92 pages – Hardcover – 24 x 32 cm – Color – One Shot – January 2025
Rights sold: French

Crazy with grief after his daughter is killed in a targeted attack, a rabbi awakens a clay colossus devoid of free will. But interacting with the Golem and a woman investigator could put a whole new spin on the rabbi's wishes.
Paris, present day. An attack takes place on rue des Rosiers: the rabbi's daughter is shot dead on her wedding day. Driven mad with grief, the rabbi attempts the unthinkable: he awakens the Golem, a clay being devoid of speech and free will, to avenge the murder of his daughter. Rachel, a suspended cop, consumed by grief and a feeling of malaise linked to her own dark past, cannot bring herself to turn the case over to her apathetic colleague. Despite her suspension, a supernatural force drives her to investigate the murders of those the police should have arrested, leading her to discover that something supernatural and intricately linked to her family's culture is avenging the hatred and disgusting ideologies of a small neo-Nazi group.

KEY POINTS:

- A story from Jewish mythology revisited, with stunning and original design.
- An immersion in the Parisian Jewish quarter, thanks to sumptuous drawings of the city of Paris.
- A conclusive story that mixes tension and tenderness starring a heroine you want to follow until the end.

THE CHASM OF RESURRECTION (LE GOUFFRE DES RÉSURRECTIONS)

SWINE

Tyrone Finch (Writer), Mauricet (Artist)

Formats: 17 x 26 cm, softcover, color, 144 pages, one shot, October 2021
Rights sold: English, French, Russian

A man sent to prison for killing his beloved wife teams up with his estranged sister-in-law to hunt down the demonic pigs truly responsible for the murder.

Two thousand years ago, Jesus (yes, that Jesus) drove a legion of demons out of a human host and into a herd of pigs, whereupon the crazed pigs charged into a river and drowned. (See Mark 5: 1-20.) At least, that's what we've been told. In truth, several of those pigs swam to safety. Two thousand years later, those possessed pigs still walk the earth and are now legion – wreaking havoc as the demons within them search for a suitable human host that they can inhabit to spread their porcine agenda.
Becky Rafferty, a small-town minister, caught wind of the pigs' schemes, but before she could out their vast conspiracy she was brutally murdered, with her husband, Ellis, framed for the crime. Seven years later, Ellis is paroled and avenging Becky's death is the only thing on his mind. Aided by his equally revenge-minded sister-in-law, Zoey, Ellis sets out to slaughter each and every possessed pig.

HARD BARGAIN

Steven DeKnight (Writer)
Leno Carvalho (Artist)

Formats: 192 pages – Hardcover – 19.4 x 26 cm – Color – One Shot – March 2025

Rights sold: English, French

Frank Harding is a hard-boiled P.I. in 1940s Los Angeles who finds himself fighting not only the usual cadre of criminals, but also the occasional demon and other malevolent supernatural beings.

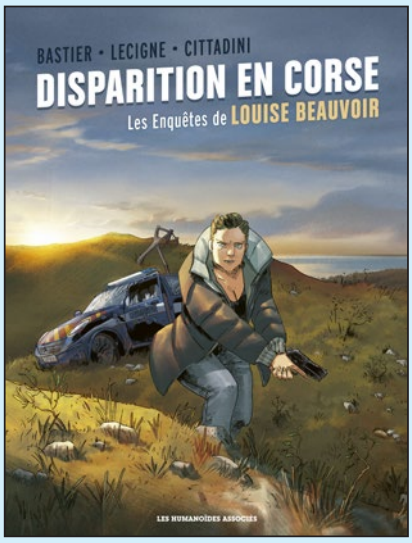

Battling the forces of darkness is another day at the office for Frank Harding, P.I.—but his current case may just be the one that puts Frank out of business for good. As he investigates a case deeply connected to his own murky past—as well as L.A.'s all-too-real history of prejudice and discrimination—Harding is forced to reckon with the fact that the sins of one generation will always be paid for by the next…

KEY POINTS:

• Acclaimed filmmaker Steven S. DeKnight's (Daredevil, Spartacus, Pacific Rim: Uprising) graphic novel debut, a two-fisted tale of murder, mayhem, and monsters in classic Hollywood like you've never seen it before!
• Combines the appeal of Classic Noir Crime storytelling with a well-wrought fantasy world of demons, monsters, and magic, all against the backdrop of a gritty Los Angeles.
• Energetic, fun, and compelling, while simultaneously revealing a complex engagement with history, racism, bigotry, revenge, and the sins of one generation being dealt with by the next.
• Perfect for fans of John Constantine: Hellblazer

LOUISE BEAUVOIR'S INVESTIGATIONS (LES ENQUÊTES DE LOUISE BEAUVOIR)

Glowing Up isn't the same as Growing Up.

Georgie is fresh out of school, working grunt assignments freelancing as a journalist, henpecked by her demanding mother, and unsure where to go or what to do. That is, until she gets the idea to go undercover for a piece on the local hardcore wrestling scene. Quickly swept up in the drama both in and out of the ring, with new friendships and potential romance, she's riding the wave of attention that temporarily silences her own insecurities. But as girl fights, casual hook-ups, and creepy older men begin to dominate her days, Georgie has to ask herself who really holds the power in her life.

KEY POINTS:

• An unflinchingly honest coming-of-age tale inspired in part by the real life pro-wrestling experiences of writer Joanne Starer (The Gimmick, Fire & Ice: Welcome to Smallville) and featuring the explosive art of up-and-comer Ornella Greco (Star Trek: Picard's Academy).
• New Adult: GLOW meets Sex Lives of College Girls
• Key Themes: Female Friendship, Identity and Sexuality, Mental Health: Anxiety, Depression, E.D.s, Toxic relationships
• "An R-rated wrestling drama with completely relatable characters. As a wrestling fan, I feel as if I already know these exact people, and as a comic book fan I want to know ALL about them!" —PATRICK BROWER (Award-winning Retailer!)

SCIENCE FICTION

ARKHÉ ET LAÏLAH

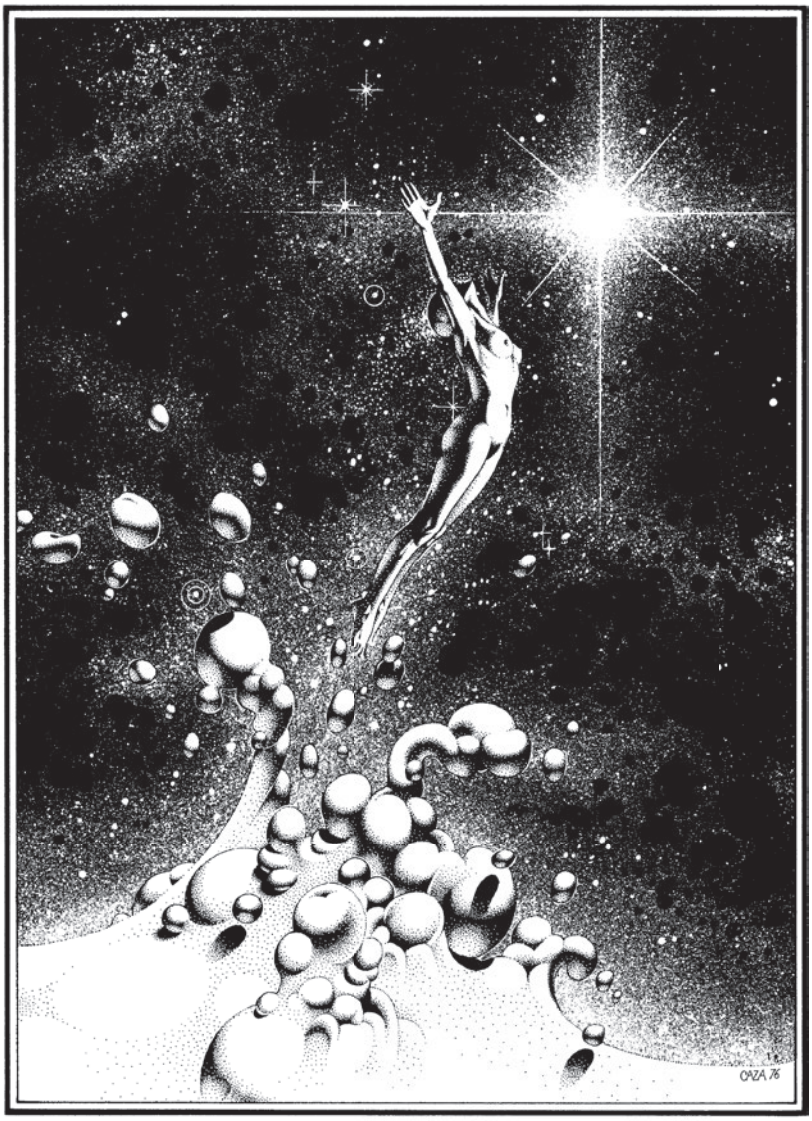

Caza

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 120 pages
Rights sold: English, French, Serbian
Press rights sold: Polish
Merchandising rights sold: Vinyl record

In an inimitable erotico-cosmic atmosphere, Philippe Caza delivered a psychedelic vision of science fiction in the magazine Métal Hurlant.

The transformation of a humanoid into a sublime bird, the mute celebration of the female body, a rewriting of the myth of Noah's Ark, a completely offbeat planet-fantasy universe, a succession of triptychs as poetic as they are masterful... Caza has put the precision of his line at the service of his imagination to deliver an almost psychedelic vision of science fiction – all in an erotic-cosmic atmosphere boosted by striking colors.

ARKHÉ ET LAÏLAH

GURVAN

Mathieu Mariolle, P. -J Hérault & Livia Pastore

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 120 pages, one shot, January 2022
Rights sold: English, French

Gurvan, a clone-soldier from the Earth Coalition, was designed to fight in an age-old space conflict...whose origins have been forgotten.

Somewhere in space, Gurvan is preparing to leave the Matéré-du where he was born: the place where the soldiers of the Earth Coalition are artificially created and then trained. As an interceptor pilot, Gurvan finds himself in the thick of battle in a space war that's proving to be increasingly deadly... But do Gurvan and his teammates even know whom they are fighting against? His encounter with an enemy soldier could very well challenge everything he believes.

ARKA PROJECT (ARCA)

Romain Benassaya & Joan Urgell

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 112 pages, one shot, January 2023
Rights sold: English, French, German, Polish

Eric Rives wakes up from a long journey in a spaceship that was to take him and the other passengers to the Lion's Claw – a sort of promised land in space where they hope to find better living conditions than on Earth's orbit, which is withering away. But Eric and the other passengers quickly realize that they are not on the Lion's Claw, and that the journey has lasted much longer than the two hundred years originally planned... An exploration of the ship's exterior reveals that they are in a sort of underground labyrinth. Eric is sent on an exploration mission to try to find the exit, but nothing goes as planned: menacing giant caterpillars attack the members of the mission. When Eric and his teammate Jia finally return to the ship a week later, they are stunned to discover that seventeen years have passed onboard... And that not everyone shares their desire to return to the stars, despite the growing threat from inside the labyrinth itself.

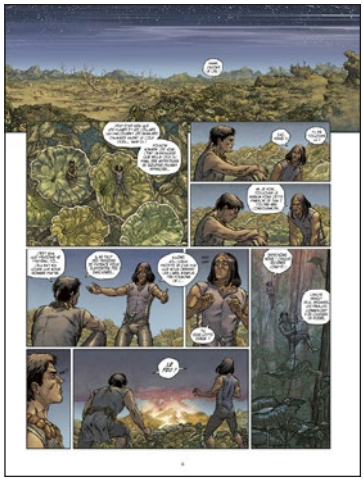

SAP HUNTERS (CHASSEURS DE SÈVE)

Alexandre Ristorcelli & Laurent Genefort

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 112 pages, one shot, March 2023
Rights sold: Dutch, English, French, Polish

Through the branches of the gigantic World-Tree, Pierig searches for the disease that is poisoning its sap.

The gigantic branches of the World Tree are home to a whole set of clans, such as the clan of the sap hunters. When Pierig is captured by this aggressive clan, he realizes it's because they're interested in his skills as a diviner. Indeed, the World Tree is dying and its nourishing sap along with it... Accompanied by three warriors, Pierig is forced to look for the origin of the disease that is eating away at the enormous tree, even if it means traveling all the way down to the ground. But what he finds at the end of his dangerous journey shakes him to the core and challenges everything he thought he knew.

METAL HURLANT

ONGOING QUARTERLY PUBLICATION

Various

Formats: 20.2 x 26.7 cm, soft cover, color, 272-288 pages
Rights sold: English, French, Polish

"The legendary Métal Hurlant magazine is back, with an issue devoted to sci-fi set in a near future. A thick magazine in the form of a mook. 2021, science fiction is at the gates of our daily lives: environmentalism, robotics, transhumanism, virtual reality, biological passports, post-mortem avatars, digital art... All these themes are explored in a special issue containing some thirty short stories. These eclectic and fascinating tales are structured around a specific sub-genre in speculative fiction: sci-fi set in the near future. The idea is to imagine the next day, the moment or the second to come that might just change everything. Contents: nothing but contemporary creation. This new series is aimed at both fans who witnessed the birth of Métal Hurlant and a new generation of readers."

Rights sold: English, French, Italian, Polish
Press rights sold: Polish

Métal Hurlant magazine was created in Paris in 1974 by Mœbius, Druillet, and Dionnet, the founding fathers of Les Humanoïdes Associés. This movement soon revolutionized the medium and inspired countless writers, artists, and directors the world over. Versions in various languages flourished everywhere, including in the States with Heavy Metal. The French version ceased publication in 1987. But in 2002, Humanoids relaunched a limited publication of a 13-issue anthology: establishing a creative bridge between the US and Europe. The inspiration and quality of the stories featured in this new wave were quite simply astonishing. Includes short stories written and illustrated by comic book stars Kurt Busiek (Avengers), Guy Davis (B.P.R.D.), and Métal Hurlant alumni Richard Corben, in addition to many other creators from both sides of the Atlantic.

THE JODOVERSE

Alejandro Jodorowsky is, without a doubt, among the best and most prolific comic book writers of our times. He is also one of the major artists of our century and has left a long-lasting imprint on the different fields of his atypical work: director of avantgarde films, poet, international writer…and, of course, he also happens to be a specialist in tarot cards.

THE SEVEN LIVES OF ALEJANDRO JODOROWSKY (LES SEPT VIES D'AJ)

Curated by Vincent Bernière & Nicolas Tellop

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 208 pages
Rights sold: English, French, Portuguese (Brazil), Russian
Press rights sold: Polish

A definitive book that explores all of Jodorowsky's creative ventures throughout his 90 years on earth.

A journey through Jodo's personal life, his life in the theater, his rebirth as a 70s cinematic cult figure and of course, his work on Dune, the unfinished masterpiece. No biography would be complete without an in-depth look into his life in the world of comics and his collaborations with Mœbius. Poetry, Tarot, Esoterism, Spirituality, Mythical Cabarets and the overall Jodo philosophy. It's all here between these pages.

Alejandro Jodorowsky, Zoran Janjetov & Fred Beltran

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 48-56 pages, 8 volume series
Rights sold: Czech, English, French, Italian, Japanese

The cosmic adventures of a young boy on his path to ridding the galaxy of an insidious technological plague. After the Greek tragedy of The Metabarons, Alejandro Jodorowsky comes back to his biblical roots with this quest reminiscent of Moses and set on a galactic scale. To top it off, the characters and the theme of virtual reality are tailor-made for artist Zoran Janjetov (Before The Incal), who finds in Jodorowsky his perfect match. Albino, hero of this space odyssey, remembers his childhood, his apprenticeship, and the big and small battles he had to fight to fulfill his ambitions in a universe where technological advances are paradoxically matched only by the cruelty and the barbarism of the forces controlling it.

KEY POINTS: Over 600,000 copies sold in the world • Translated into 13 languages

Amid the debris of a shattered universe of an ancient species that self-destructed, political and religious factions are fighting to bring back a powerful ancient God. Alandor, a young nobleman with a bright future ahead of him, discovers he's gravely ill. Rejected by his own kind, he soon becomes the leader of a group of bandits and joins the quest to find the ancient God. One of Jodorowsky's first tales, Alandor was written at the same time as the celebrated The Incal.

MŒBIUS OEUVRES

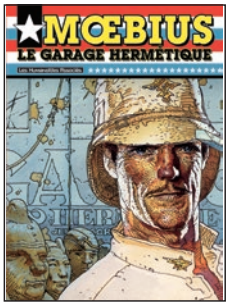

Mœbius

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 48-120 pages, 10 volume series
Omnibus rights sold: French, German, Italian, Spanish
Diptych format rights sold: German

Classic re-editions of Mœbius' works in a new collection that gathers his mythical short stories, originally published in the pages of Métal Hurlant and other great BD magazines of the 1970s–1980s, in addition to his most famous titles. This luxurious collection contains the absolute must-have of Mœbius' oeuvre, as well as other treasures not to be missed. During the 1970s, Jean Giraud, known under the cartoonist name Gir, decided to create for himself another artistic personality. Having up until then only illustrated a classic western story (Blueberry), he decided to use a new pen name, Mœbius, to explore different styles and types of comic book art, thus revolutionizing modern French comic books under the influence of American underground art and the counter-culture wave. Co-founder of Métal Hurlant magazine and Les Humanoïdes Associés, Mœbius reinvented the aesthetics of science fiction comics. With stories such as Arzach, Le Major Fatal, and many other short stories, Mœbius' work has had a worldwide impact on pop culture. Among the works compiled in this new collection, are two books that were originally published only once before, in the early 1990s, Chaos (which contains several paintings by Mœbius) and Chroniques Métalliques.

MŒBIUS THE METAMORPH

Mœbius, Florent Chastel, Daniel Pizzoli, Claude Ecken, Nicolas, Richard Stanley

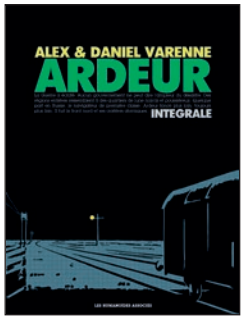

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hard cover, color, 224 pages, art book, August 2021
Rights sold: French

A coffee-table book that deciphers the work of Mœbius.
Unlike the single-sided strip that inspired his pseudonym, Mœbius' body of work is defined above all else by its multifaceted aspect: this coffee-table book proposes to break down these various facets using a thematic approach to the artist's prolific oeuvre. This book brings together, for the first time, all the texts by Mœbius specialists written for reissues of the genius illustrator's key works published by Humanoids. Among the subjects explored are: his relationship to drawing and his contribution to comics; his relationship to cinema; his favorite themes and figures; eroticism in his work; and more. This copiously illustrated book is destined to become a definitive work for aficionados of this protean artist, be they collectors or neophytes.

ARZACH

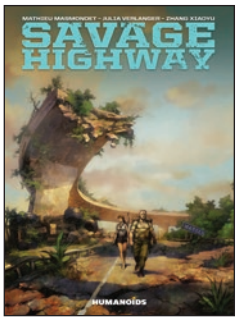

ARDOR (ARDEUR)

Alex & Daniel Varenne

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, b&w, 480 pages, omnibus
Rights sold: French

The world has been ravaged by nuclear warfare in the wake of the Cold War. Ardor, a war-disabled deserter, is on the run, wandering through a post-apocalyptic landscape. Through improbable encounters, he embarks on a journey toward Warschau, the last cradle of civilization… Long before Alex Varenne burst on the scene as one of the Masters of European Eroticism, he published this black and white volume with his brother Daniel in the early 1980s. A masterpiece of European Comics.

SAVAGE HIGHWAY (AUTOROUTE SAUVAGE) • COMPLETED SERIES

Part of the Retroworlds shared universe
Adapted from the work of Julia Verlanger
Mathieu Masmondet & Zhang Xiaoyu

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 56 pages, 3 volume series
Rights sold: English, French, German

The world of today is no longer. Amidst the ruins of our civilization, men and women have been forced to evolve in a savage and unforgiving environment. In order to survive, some have become cannibals, some have banded together for protection, while others chose the solitary route; known as loners. Such is Mo, an imposing and taciturn figure who wanders France's desolate highways to the rhythm of the changing seasons. When he saves a young woman, Helen, from a band of vicious cannibals, he doesn't realize the turn his destiny has just taken. A breathtaking adaptation from Julia Verlanger's oeuvre and one of French science fiction's great classics, beautifully brought to life by Zhang Xiaoyu.

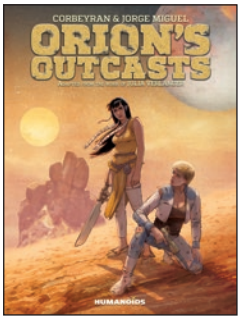

RETROWORLD • COMPLETED SERIES

Part of the Retroworlds shared universe

Patrick Galliano, Cédric Peyravernay & Bazal

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 56 pages, 2 volume series
Rights sold: Dutch, English, French, German, Italian &Spanish

A rich Sci-Fi saga adapted from the work of Julia Verlanger, one of the most celebrated authors of the French science fiction movement of the 1970s. Humans have scattered and occupied the known universe for so long that many worlds have forgotten their true, Earthly origins. The planets which retain the memory of the "Formers" have allied together, creating a Galactic Federation, whereas the "Retros" are worlds that have returned to a more archaic, primitive, and isolationist way of life. The Federation entrusts its best agent, Marce, with a delicate, yet vital, mission to help a retro world called Almagiel evolve. But political machinations, brutal living conditions, and deadly creatures may prove to be the agent's undoing.

ORION'S OUTCASTS (LES DÉCASTÉS D'ORION)

Adapted from the work of Julia Verlanger
Corbeyran & Jorge Miguel

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 48 pages, 2 volume series
Rights sold: Dutch, English, French, German

"Outcast!" The sentence is handed down at the same time as the iron brand burns Kolhen's arm. Now, instead of his warrior tattoo, the young man wears the mark of the rejected, the "outcasts" as they are known on the planet Absalon. Determined to prove his innocence and to get revenge on those who set him up, Kolhen escapes captivity with the help of the fiery Tryana, another of society's pariahs. During his journey, Kolhen meets a mysterious woman with golden hair, armed with unknown military tools. A magician? No, she claims to be an envoy from another planet: Earth.

WINGS OF LIGHT (L'ANGE AUX AILES DE LUMIÈRE) • COMPLETED SERIES

Rights sold: English, French, Italian, Polish, Portuguese (Brazil), Russian

In this epic Sci-Fi tale, betrayed galactic emperor Elias finds his consciousness trapped in a metal body, forcing him to overcome impossible odds to reclaim his throne. In a universe that could very well be either a predecessor to our own civilization, or be set in a far distant future, intergalactic space travel and advanced robotic technology exists amid an established social structure reminiscent of our own medieval times. The Emperor Elias holds the difficult task of maintaining a semblance of unity within a galaxy whose every planet is prey to frequent internal power-struggles. But when these men meet to wage battle, it is no longer at the risk of losing their lives. For a few, brief, hours, the spirit of the warrior can be transferred into a combat robot whose design resembles that of the classic knights of yore. When the Prime, a deadly alien race, invades the Empire, Elias attempts to rally his nobles to war…

HALLOWEEN

O. G. Boiscommun

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 56 pages, one shot.
New enlarged edition with 26 unpublished pages
Rights sold: English, French

Halloween is a book for the entire family. A story filled with poetry and emotions that transports you to an oneiric world, where you are led from image to image according to the story's own liking. This tale in rhyme celebrates the deceased while also depicting an appreciation for life. Young Asphodèle invites you to immerse yourself in the great book of the night. And if, at the corner of a street, you meet a ghost, take the time to walk with him. You may just recognize him, and if melancholy torments you, he could well be the one to make you smile once again!

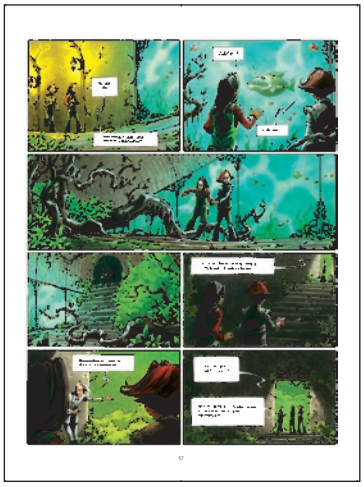

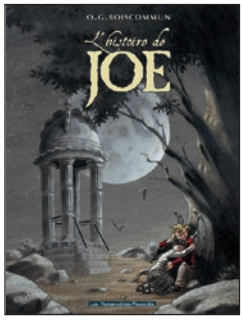

THE BOOK OF JACK / THE BOOK OF SAM (LE LIVRE DE JACK / LE LIVRE DE SAM)

D-P Filippi & O. G. Boiscommun

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 48 pages, 2 volume series
Rights sold: Dutch, English, French, German

On the outskirts of late 19th-century London, Jack and his (female) friend Sam are part of a group of orphans and loners living on the streets. When the gang's nasty leader, Stanley, pushes him to demonstrate a feat of courage or face expulsion from the group, Jack explores a haunted mansion, emerging with a piece of treasure: a magical book. When he and Sam sit to read it, they find the detailed story of Jack's own life, up to that very minute. Jealous, Stanley orders another member of the gang to secretly write the next line: "Jack becomes a horrible monster." Soon Sam begins to notice Jack gradually transforming into an awful beast, aggressive and routinely mistreating others just as newspaper accounts begin reporting on a mysterious, savage "ripper" at large in London…

THE STORY OF JOE (L'HISTOIRE DE JOE)

O. G. Boiscommun

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 54 pages, one shot
Rights sold: English, French

Joe is a solitary boy who lives alone with his father. He loves the night and its creatures. Taken over by his own imagination, he slowly loses touch with reality and undergoes a strange transformation. Béa, his only friend, cannot understand what is happening to him. Contrary to Joe, she does not like the night. She's even afraid of it at times, but never when she is with her friend Joe… The Story of Joe could easily be any of our own stories, that of a child, his doubts, his fears, and his growth. Follow it and follow Joe from the dusk of childhood to the dawn of adolescence.

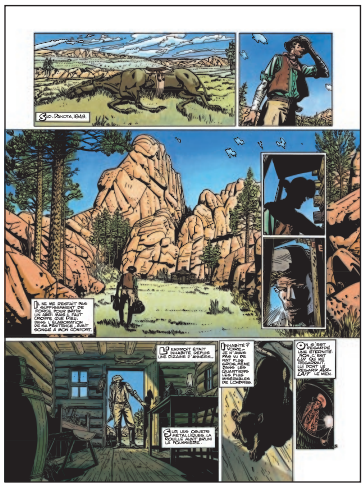

THOUSAND FACES (MILLE VISAGES) • COMPLETED SERIES

Philippe Thirault, Marc Malès & Mario Janni

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 48-56 pages, 5 volume series
Rights sold: English, French, Italian

"Take nothing with you, but two mules, a rifle, and ten bullets." Those words echo in ex-surgeon Frank Quinn's head as he flees across mid-19th century America to escape the demon known as Thousand Faces, an evil entity that uses blood to enslave others and will stop at nothing to conquer the world. Philippe Thirault, writer of the acclaimed Miss: Better Living Through Crime and Balkans Arena, collaborates with artists Marc Malès (Different Ugliness Different Madness) and Mario Janni to chronicle a sweeping historical epic where science and the supernatural blend in a fusion of horror and redemption.

Corbeyran (vol. 1 & 2) & Cécil

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 48 pages, 3 volume series
Rights sold: Danish, Dutch, English, French, German, Italian, Spanish

A twisted tale of intrigue set amidst a retro-futuristic version of early 20th century France's La Belle Époque, but it proves to be far from a "Beautiful Era." Eustache carries the heavy burden of a difficult past, including a lost childhood. He and his fellow cat-burglar and partner, the diminutive Mouche, break into wealthy homes for a living. One day, Eustache and Mouche make a shocking discovery in the safe they have just cracked: the film negative of a "snuff movie", a film where murders are committed for real for a perversive audience. After this macabre revelation, a trail of deaths begin to follow the pair. A dark fairytale where the emerging technologies and high fashion only serve as cover to the most sordid of deeds. Written and drawn by prolific European stars Corbeyran and Cecil.

Rights sold: English, French

Drazen has completed his magician's training and is now ready to carry out the mission conferred upon him by his caste: to find and fight the renegade magician Lancaster, his own father. Drazen goes out to meet Lancaster about whom he knows nothing other than the extent of his wicked powers. But the magicians have hidden from Drazen the reasons for Lancaster's exclusion: when he was a promising young magician, Lancaster gave up everything to live with the woman he loved and the child they had together, Drazen. Love is forbidden in the caste, so Lancaster was banished, his wife killed and Drazen "re-educated". In his grief, Lancaster conceived a desperate plan to resurrect Drazen's mother at any price, and he knows he cannot do so without Drazen's help, whatever the consequences. Torn between the desire to find the love of his father and mother, and the mistrust of Lancaster's demiurge ambitions, Drazen chooses to flee with Anja, his own life-long love.

Young and good-looking, Lothario must seduce and marry the four princesses of the four kingdoms—earth, water, air, and fire—one after the other. Torn between his mission and the appetites of any young man his age, he must prove how smart he is at overcoming the challenges that are presented to him. An irresistible series full of humor and adventure and set in a marvelous imaginary medieval universe.

THE MAGICAL TWINS (LES JUMEAUX MAGIQUES)

Alejandro Jodorowsky & Georges Bess

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 48 pages, one shot
Rights sold: English, Finnish, French

In a state of utter panic, Lyrenne, the magical and legendary bird, flies across the sacred lake toward Kheter, the capital of the kingdom. With little strength left within it, the noble animal disregards the warning of the guards, and interrupts the rigorous training of the kingdom's two princes, the twins Mara and Aram. Lyrenne brings catastrophic news to the palace. The king has been taken prisoner by Tartarath, the master of darkness. An expert in the art of cruelty, the traitor defies the noble lineage by going after its youngest descendants: the twin princes! Mara and Aram confront the cruel lord in order to save both their father and the very future of the kingdom. They venture across the four forbidden islands that stretch from the northern parts of the kingdom to the sanctuary where they meet their final obstacle. Accompanied solely by the valiant Lyrenne, they must succeed without recourse to its magical powers, as Tartarath has placed a spell where any use of magic would instantly kill their father. This compelling tale offers the very best in fantasy storytelling!

A city of sects, secret societies,conspiracies, murders, orgies, and other distractions invented to placate a people always quick to revolt. In this city lives Salomé, a psychic woman renowned for her accurate clairvoyance. However, her success is due to more than a simple "gift of the gods." Her astute mind, psychological awareness, and cunning personality all allow her to "foresee" the truth. If a friend or a parent disappears suspiciously, people come to her for help. Behind her front as a clairvoyant, she runs a meticulous, and logical investigation, especially when it concerns one of her nearest and dearest...

LA PORTE D'ISHTAR · COMPLETED SERIES

Alain Paris & Simon Dupuis

Formats: 22.5 x 29.7 cm, hardcover, color, 48 pages, 2 volume series
Press rights sold: French, Italian

Ancient Babylon, the capital city of the Assyrian-Babylonian Empire, was the most populated city in the world, surrounded by a wall with seven gates. One of them is dedicated to the goddess Ishtar, and capital punishments are carried out in the square in front of it. The dried skins of condemned criminals are nailed down on the gate as a foreboding warning. Taliya, a young scribe girl, is chosen by Queen Semiramis to lead the police force and investigate all levels of this prosperous city. Her first investigation (contained in a two-volume story) is into the murder of an important citizen who seems to have let himself be strangled without resistance. To uncover the truth, Taliya will have to confront a chauvinistic society full of old-fashioned prejudices.

LE MAÎTRE ROUGE · COMPLETED SERIES

Francesco Artibani & Ivo Milazzo

Formats: 22.5 x 29.7 cm, hardcover, color, 48 pages, 2 volume series
Rights sold: French

Inside the Pontifical State of Rome in 1830, civil life is governed with an iron fist by the ecclesiastic authorities. The hero of this series is inspired by the character of the Red Master, a pontifical executioner for almost 70 years who put 515 people to death. Giovan Battista Mori, the Pope's executioner for the last 30 years, is a quiet man who devotes himself to his woodwork shop when away from the scaffold. His hangman trade has made him one of the most unpopular men in the city. Yet, his detachment is only ostensible, as Mori still holds the weight of a crime of passion he committed long ago—for which an innocent man was executed. The obsessive feeling of guilt drives him to investigate the cases of prisoners on "death row".

NOVIKOV · COMPLETED SERIES

Patrick Weber & Bruno Brindisi

Formats: 22.5 x 29.7 cm, hardcover, color, 48 pages, 2 volume series
Rights sold: Dutch, English, French

Alexis Novikov, an officer in the Imperial Police, solves criminal mysteries in a Saint Petersburg torn between the eternal Russia of the ancient Tsars and the modern, enlightened European version envisaged by Peter the Great. He doesn't hesitate to use "unorthodox" methods in his investigations. A fanatic named Troubelkine accuses Saint Petersburg's elite society of corruption, libertinism, and decadence. The man soon becomes the prime suspect when several members of the aristocracy are savagely murdered with a crucifix through the heart. Yet, those same aristocrats seem to protect this man people call the "Starets," the "Fool of God." Despite numerous pitfalls the investigation turns personal for the dashing Novikov, who believes this wealthy class are responsible for the death of his own wife.

Rights sold: English, French, Polish
Press rights sold: Croatian, Finnish

A zombie spoof featuring a group of friends on their journey to start a little business of their own…zombie catchers!

Los Angeles, 2064. In a world where humans have to live along the living dead, a new job opportunity arises: zombie catcher. Karl Neard, his sister Maggie, and his Belgian friend Freddy Merckx, all embrace this «career» in the hope of making easy money. Unfortunately, the job is not that simple: not only are the «dead» still walking, but they also have a terrible stench and an awful sense of humor. As a matter of fact, zombies just don't care about anything as their lives are behind them and they now have an eternity to enjoy what is left of the world.

KEY POINTS: Movie adaptation "We are Zombies" by the Canadian filmmaking trio Anouk Whissell, Yoann-Karl Whissell and François Simard aka the RKSS

Rights sold: English, French
Press rights sold: Dutch, Finnish

Slice-of-life stories sprinkled with a dash of the supernatural, and served with comical and whimsical results. A series of humorous vignettes of everyday life…except for the fact that each short story features one or more characters who have the uncanny ability of walking through walls. Whether it's a romantic dinner, a friendly bet, or a crush on your co-worker, this special skill promises to «enliven» things quite a bit… Curse or blessing? It's up to you to find out!

MAXIMUM & MINIMUM

Jerry Frissen & Walder

Formats: 22.5 x 29.7 cm, hardcover, color, 48 pages, 2 volume series
Rights available

Maximum and Minimum are two regular guys whose obsession with all things Lucha Libre and all things Japanese have inspired them to become HEROES! By day, they are dishwashers at a small restaurant in Los Angeles's Little Tokyo neighborhood. By night, they hope to save the weak (particularly the really cute and sexy female ones…) from the clutches of Evil! When children begin mysteriously disappearing from the streets of Little Tokyo, our duo isn't all that bothered until they find out that the prettiest waitress at their restaurant is DEVASTATED by the news. Hoping to gain her affection, our two "heroes" investigate the kidnappings. What they find is a humongous conspiracy involving a secret underground city below Little Tokyo, and lots of KILLER ROBOTS!

UNFABULOUS FIVE (THE LUCHADORES FIVE) • COMPLETED SERIES

Jerry Frissen & Bill

Rights sold: English, French, Japanese
Press rights sold: English (Malaysia)

Between battles and laughs, a story of acceptance, camaraderie, and tradition set in the world of Lucha Libre. Lucha Libre, the Mexican art of wrestling, has made its way to Southern California in the form of the Luchadores Five, a gang unlike any other, whose mission is to clean up its East Los Angeles community. But despite all of their best attempts to get rid of crime in their hometown, the "Unfabulous 5," as they are sometimes known, are regularly arrested by the police, roughed up by a myriad of other gangs, including Werewolves, ridiculed by the public, and chastised by their family and loved ones. Between battles and laughs, The Unfabulous Five is a story of acceptance, camaraderie, and the importance of tradition, culture, and community.

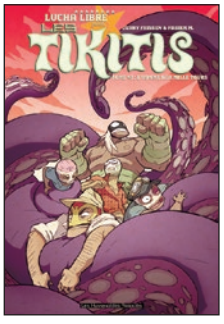

TEQUILA • COMPLETED SERIES

Jerry Frissen & Gobi

Formats: 22 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 48-64 pages, 3 volume series
Rights sold: English, French

Tequila believes he was abandoned by his parents as an infant and raised by the Cacti of Mexico. When his adoptive Cacti parents died, he fermented their remains in a bottle! Whenever he is in need of his "special" powers, he takes a swig of this "unique" tequila made from the remains of his adopted parents. A former member of the Unfabulous 5, Tequila was kicked out of the gang by its leader, El Gladiator, over a mysterious disagreement. Tequila now lives in a trailer park with his wife Cheryl, and despite his immense size and superhuman strength, he is actually an enormously sensitive guy who can regularly be found crying in the comforting arms of his spouse, gently rocking to the amorous sounds of Mariachi music. That is until his troubled past returns to haunt him in the form of different villains…

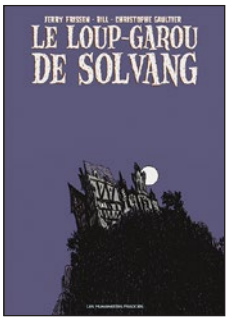

THE TIKITIS (LES TIKITIS) • COMPLETED SERIES

Jerry Frissen & Fabien M.

Formats: 22 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 48-64 pages, 3 volume series
Rights sold: English, French, Spanish

A group of retired Lucha Libre masked heroes hope for well-deserved peace and quiet on a small Polynesian island. Unbeknownst to them, their greatest adventures are yet to come! M. Philoloco, Doctor Sumo, Polynome Z, and Cerebrex are four retired Luchadores known as The Tikitis. They thought it would be easy living on the small Polynesian "Savage Island." Boy, were they wrong! Amidst dealing with becoming old men, they accidentally find themselves in the most savage of habitats where world-threatening evildoers regularly create turmoil in the island's jungles. It's hard to call retired life on a tropical island «paradise» when you have to deal with Voodoo zombies, brain-swapping mad scientists, a cyclops and, worst of all, a visit from Philoloco's overbearing mother!

THE WEREWOLF OF SOLVANG (LE LOUP-GAROU DE SOLVANG)

Jerry Frissen, Bill & Christophe Gaultier

Formats: 22 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 48 pages, one shot
Rights sold: French

In The Werewolf of Solvang, we get a glimpse of a young El Gladiator (leader of the Unfabulous Five) as he struggles with romance and adventure during the 1980s. As an up-and-coming heroine, Madame Belle decides to study the intricacies of "heroism" from the seasoned veteran El Gladiator. Unfortunately, El Glad and Madame Belle want something drastically different from their «team-up.» Madame Belle's happy being the "Robin" to El Gladiator's «Batman.» However, El Gladiator's hoping she'll be the "Eve" to his "Adam". In this team-up adventure, El Gladiator and Madame Belle investigate the peculiar sightings of a werewolf in the California tourist town of Solvang. Is there some truth to the rumor that a werewolf has been seen atop the tacky Danish windmills of Solvang? Or is it all a hoax intended to attract tourists? The truth will haunt you (and make you laugh)!

PROFESOR FURIA

Jerry Frissen & Nikola Witko

Formats: 21.8 x 28.5 cm, color, 56 pages, one shot
Rights sold: French

There are always exceptions to the rule: the despicable "hero" Professor Furia is the Yin to the true heroes of the Lucha Libre universe's Yang (Luchadores Five, Tikitis…). Terrible, ugly and cruel, Profesor Furia mistreats his students, comes up with the most ignominious plans to conquer the world, and is the ultimate macho man. In short: Furia is not PC and isn't afraid to hide it!

UNFABULOUS FIVE

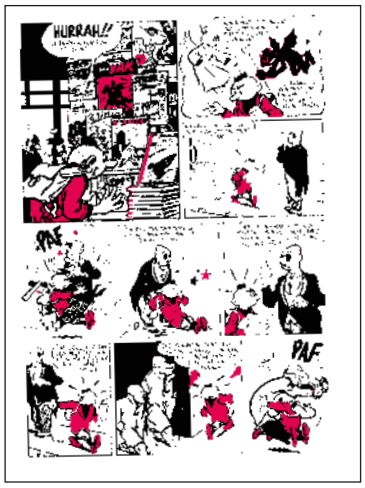

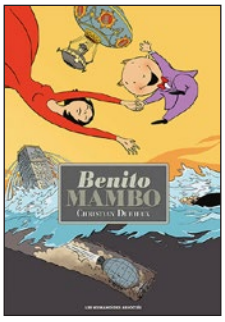

CHALAND ANTHOLOGY (CHALAND OEUVRE) • COMPLETED SERIES

Yves Chaland

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 128-136 pages, 4 volumes
Rights sold: Freddy Lombard – Danish, English, French, German, Greek, Italian, Spanish, Swedish; Bob Fish – Dutch, English, French, German; Jeune Albert – Dutch, English, French, German, Spanish; Captivant – French, German
Press rights sold: Freddy Lombard – Hungarian

The art of Chaland explores many different universes and genres. For example, while «Freddy Lombard» follows exotic adventures, «Young Albert» examines more intimate and everyday events and is also largely autobiographical. In Tout Chaland all the author's now legendary characters are assembled: Freddy Lombard, Adolphus Claar, Young Albert, and many others. This is the complete works of Yves Chaland in 4 volumes — a genius who tragically left us far too young. In addition to his contributions to comics, Chaland has been acclaimed for his work in advertising and his ability to revive the "ligne Claire" drawing style with a contemporary twist.

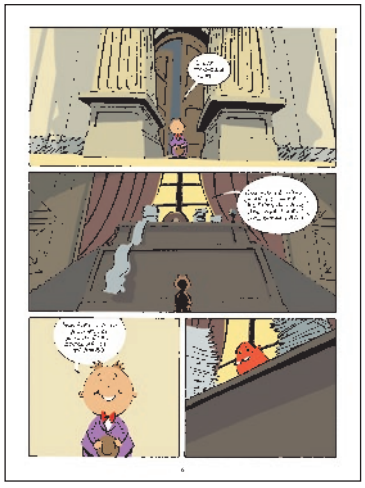

BENITO MAMBO

Christian Durieux

Formats: 25.3 x 33.6 cm, hardcover, color, 120 pages, one shot
Rights sold: English, French

A whimsical and heartfelt fable about following your dreams that will appeal to fans of Antoine de Saint-Exupéry's classic, The Little Prince. Benito dreams of becoming a mambo dancer. But his outraged billionaire father forbids the little boy's dancing destiny and exiles him from the family home. On the fantastical journey that follows, young Benito will meet a host of quirky characters, traverse the globe, and experience love and friendship.

LE CIMETIÈRE DES ÉLÉPHANTS

ANGES • COMPLETED SERIES

Dieter & O. G. Boiscommun

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 56 pages, 3 volume series
Rights sold: French

Jeliel and Yesod are facetious, intelligent, and rather lazy angels, used by the Divine Authorities to keep the Church in good order. They are ordered to bring peace back to the quiet gothic church of Saint-Eustache where the usual torpor is threatened by a significant increase in sins. All signs indicate the intrusion on demonic envoys. After the first exciting book where Good finally triumphs over Evil, our angels are compensated for their efficient work by a transfer to a tiny parish in Brittany where traditional witchcraft has returned. No peace for these angels! A charming mix of poetry and laughter pervades this series.

DANS LES VILLAGES

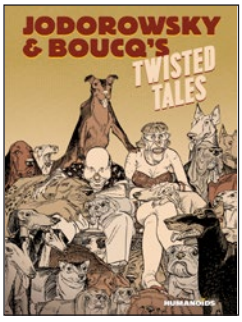

Max Cabanes

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 52-64 pages, 4 volume series
Rights sold: French

In the village of Merdouzills, life is simple and peacefully sways along to the gentle rhythm of the good intentioned habits of its four fingered inhabitants. Babies are always born in the spring, and the nights are always spent around the fire. Eating, drinking, and sleeping are the ways of life. Jean-Marie and Julienne are two inseparable friends who are very loyal to their well-loved village. But the arrival of Jonathan on his acrobatic bicycle will disrupt the continuity of their little world. The cyclist claims to have found a stash of corniflure, a substance that causes bouts of intelligence in whoever consumes it. On their journey to this coveted good, the gang from Merdouzills encounter many strange beings as they wander further and further away from their cherished land. A comical tale rich in adventure.

AWARDS: Grand Prix of Angoulême 1990 – Max Cabanes

JODOROWSKY & BOUCQ'S TWISTED TALES (LE TRÉSOR DE L'OMBRE)

Alejandro Jodorowsky & François Boucq

Formats: 30.5 x 40.6 cm, hardcover, duotone, illustrated text, 88 pages
Rights sold: English, French

The playful collaboration of two masters of the medium, where the thoughts of one guided the hand of the other. The result is a unique blend of poetry and graphic storytelling. Because of their love of both words and imagery, Alejandro Jodorowsky challenged François Boucq (Bouncer) to a game. Jodorowsky would write dozens of short stories full of wisdom and humor, poetry and brutality, irony and beauty. From these diverse fables, Boucq would pick 40 or so tales to comment on and illustrate. The dialogue between them ended up taking them further than expected. Together, they created a truly original piece of work, where the art was fully intertwined to the writing, as lyrics are to music.

AWARDS: Grand Prix of Angoulême 1998 – François Boucq

Rights sold: French, German, Spanish
Merch rights sold: Hachette Collection

Les Larmes du Sexe makes up part of Alex Varenne's hard-to-find classics. Varenne is one of the uncontested masters of the 1980s and '90s who contributed greatly to the pages of the legendary publications Charlie Mensuel and L'Echo des Savanes. This collection compiles illustrated sketches and poems dedicated to female sensuality, and through which Varenne uncovers a series of ribald fantasies with the utmost class. A work that is both art and literature.

ANGEL CLAWS (GRIFFES D'ANGE)

Alejandro Jodorowsky & Mœbius

Formats: 30 x 40 & 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, b&w, 72 pages, one shot
Rights sold: English, French, Greek, Italian, Polish, Spanish
Press rights sold: Spanish

The duo of Alejandro Jodorowsky and Mœbius lead us on a sensual and poetic journey, creating before us an erotic masterpiece. In Angel Claws, frequent collaborators Alejandro Jodorowsky and Mœbius (The Incal, The Eyes of the Cat) indulge their more risqué sides as they describe a young woman's sexual awakening. Suggestive eroticism quickly evolves to metaphysical delirium.

KEY POINTS: Translated into 11 languages
AWARDS: Grand Prix of Angoulême 1981 – Mœbius

ODE À L'X

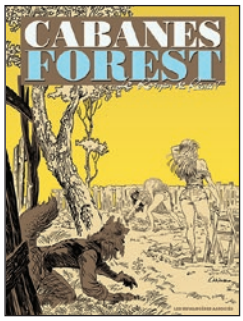

Beb Deum, Bess, Chauzy, Liberatore, Loustal, Mœbius, Jeff Rey & Varenne

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 60 pages, one shot
Rights sold: Chinese (complex), English, French

A magnificent anthology of erotic poems illustrated by great artists: Mœbius, Liberatore, Loustal…

In a magnificent anthology, Gilles Durieux brings together experts in licentious verse and renowned artists. The dreamy drawings of Beb Deum illustrate the erotic words of Belleau while the bawdyness of Pierre Motin meets the frank and straightforward line of Chauzy. Moebius packs the rhymes and assonances of Patin de la Fizelière into a psychedelic comic strip worthy of his greatest works. In all eight original combinations for the greatest pleasure of our senses.

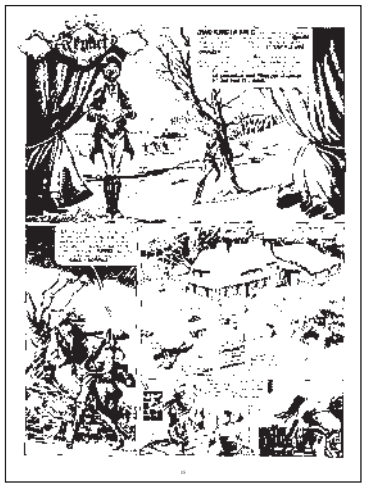

REYNARD THE FOX (LE ROMAN DE RENART)

Jean-Claude Forest & Max Cabanes

Formats: 30.5 x 40.8 cm, hardcover, b&w, 40 pages, one shot
Rights sold: French

An erotic and sensual transposition of the famous medieval novel. With this liberal and bawdy adaptation of The Novel of Reynard, Forest, creator of Barbarella, restores the earthy realism and verve of the medieval text. The characters, wearing animal masks, are drawn with vigor and vitality and speak in a delightful manner, a mixture of old French, French slang, English, and Italian. Cabanes, quite at ease in this world, renders it with richness and subtlety, demonstrating a graphic mastery that truly takes one's breath away.

AWARDS: Grand Prix of Angoulême 1990 – Max Cabanes • Grand Prix of Angoulême 1983 – Jean-Claude Forest

TOTENDOM

Gabriel Delmas & Robin Recht

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 56 pages, 3 volume series
Rights sold: French

During a period when the Western Empire is immensely powerful, Darius is emperor and living god. His power is uncontested as his army has the mightiest of warlords. The most faithful of them, Count Dante—the Emperor's, and the army's, favorite general—is called upon to push back the barbarians amassing on the Eastern Front. Dante is helped by his wife, Jeanne, herself a great warrior revered by the soldiers. As she is pregnant, she refuses to fight this last battle, and unsuccessfully pleads with Dante to give up fighting as well. Unfortunately, Jeanne's fears are well-founded and, without any explanation, the reinforcements do not arrive. Dante and his army are cut to pieces by the enemy troops. Did Emperor Darius decide to punish Dante for his dangerous splendor, one that might one day threaten his very throne? An epic of love and blood full of the evocative expressionism that marks much of artist Robin Recht's work.

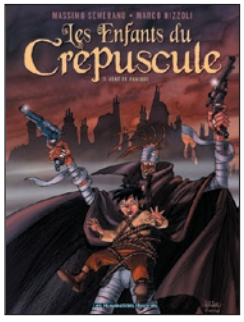

TIR NAN OG

Fabrice Colin & Elvire de Cock

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 48 pages, 2 volume series
Rights sold: Dutch, French

In the middle of the 19th century, famine and misery force thousands of Irish people to leave their country and migrate to the United States, the land of all hopes and dreams. What many do not know is that a parallel exodus is taking place in the Celtic fairy world, which is populated with fairies, elves, and dwarves, and whose destination is Tir Nan Og. The entrance to this enchanting land is the same as that of their human counterparts: New York City. Tir Nan Og, however, has gradually fallen into oblivion. Fifty years later, in 1899, Stephen, a member of a gang of street thugs, discovers in an underground subway system an ancient map marked with enigmatic dots. Without realizing it, the boy is dragged into a magical and age-old conflict between the world of Tir Nan Og and the world of the dreaded Teknees, evil beings spawned during the Industrial Revolution. He will discover that the salvation of the land of the fairies now depends solely upon him.

LES ENFANTS DU CRÉPUSCULE

Massimo Semerano & Marco Nizzoli

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 56 pages, 2 volume series
Rights sold: French, Italian

In a world somewhat similar to ours, monsters and other nightmarish creatures have to live alongside humans. Stronger and more intelligent than humans, these mutants were, throughout the centuries, the victims of the worst persecutions, but they also wrote some of history's bloodiest pages. They are now gathered in a ghetto called "The Cloaca" in the great city, and are forced to do the most arduous of jobs. It is in this morbid world that Alice and her young brother Polo arrive, in search of a solution to Polo's own seemingly immutable transformation.

RIO NEGRO

Iwan Lepingle

Formats: 21 x 32 cm, soft cover, b&w, 112 pages, one shot
Rights sold: French

A break from civilization is precisely what Richter was searching for. He has fled Germany and found haven in Patagonia, beyond the Rio Negro river, in Tierra del Fuego. When our story begins, it has been a year since Richter has settled in his new home, but he has yet to get to know the other people living around him. During a visit to Valdez's—the cattle farmer for whom he has been working—the farmer tells him that he has discovered, near his large estate, the remains of a fire and of dead sheep with their throats cut. At that same time, one of Valdez's neighbors, Trehmann, and his daughter Hanna, pay Richter a visit explaining that several of their horses have been stolen from them a few weeks prior. There's no doubt that these were not isolated incidents, but more likely the work of an organized gang. Because of his desire to get out of his isolation and to know Trehmann's daughter better, Richter starts his own investigation to find out who the perpetrators are.

THE EGYPTIAN PRINCESSES (LES PRINCESSES ÉGYPTIENNES)

What would the world be like if nuclear war between the USA and the USSR had occurred? What if the survivors had found a way to use radioactivity as a power source? Nevada, 1987.10 years after the end of nuclear war, the country has been rebuilt. Thousands of civilians are still irradiated. Fortunately, the government developed a treatment called G.H.O.S.T. (Gray-Human-Omegon-Synthetized-Treatment). By using it, a human being can not only slow down the effects of radiation to his body; he can control it. The Erynies are humans that can use G.H.O.S.T. to activate such incredible abilities. 23-year-old Kama is a low-ranked bounty hunter who runs a slum where irradiated people are too poor to afford the G.H.O.S.T. treatment. His primary objective is to hunt Erynies. One day, he is asked to capture Ananke, a young, female leader of an extremist group responsible for stealing an H-bomb from a military base. Detonating the stolen bomb could mean the end to the planet's fragile peace. But with a $50 Million bounty, Kama isn't the only one looking for Ananke: he must compete with the greatest bounty hunters on Earth to get to her.

ALL TOMORROW'S PARTIES: THE VELVET UNDERGROUND STORY

Koren Shadmi

Formats: 19 x 26 cm, hardcover, color, 192 pages, one shot, August 2023
Rights sold: English, French

An examination of some of New York rock'n'roll's most iconic figures—The Velvet Underground & Andy Warhol—and the relationship that distorted their lives and changed pop culture.

Born from the iconic NY art and music scene of the late '60s and the brilliant, untamed minds of its founding members Lou Reed and John Cale, The Velvet Underground are now considered rock 'n' roll royalty...but that wasn't always so. From surviving off oatmeal and donating blood for rent money, to the fame of being the de facto house band of Andy Warhol's Factory and the objects of the socialite's fleeting affection, to the unraveling of Cale and Reed's creative partnership in a storm of jealousy and paranoia, the Velvets' story is as bold, challenging, and fascinating as their music. Explore the story behind the group NYT called "arguably the most influential American rock band of our time," through good times and bad, as captured by Eisner-nominated Koren Shadmi.

LUGOSI

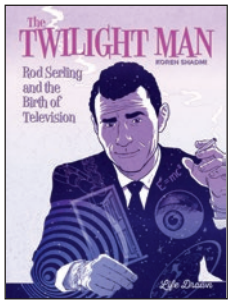

Koren Shadmi

Formats: 19 x 26 cm, softcover, duotone, 168 pages, one shot, January 2023
Rights sold: English, French

A biography chronicling the tumultuous personal and professional life of horror icon and star of stage and screen, Bela Lugosi.

Lugosi, the tragic life story of one of horror's most iconic film stars, tells of a young Hungarian activist forced to flee his homeland after the failed Communist revolution in 1919. After a brief stint as a stage actor in Germany, he started a new life in Hollywood and landed the unforgettable role of Count Dracula in what would become a series of classic feature films. From that point forward, Lugosi's stardom would be assured...but with international fame came setbacks and addictions that gradually whittled his reputation from icon to has-been. Lugosi details the actor's fall from grace, sad ending, and legacy.

THE TWILIGHT MAN

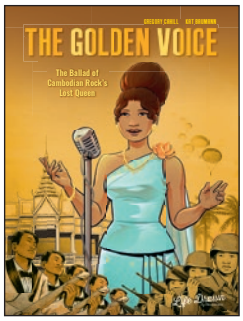

Koren Shadmi

Formats: 19 x 26 cm, softcover, duotone, 180 pages, one shot, October 2019
Rights sold: English, French, Portuguese (Brazil)

A biographical tale that follows Hollywood revolutionary Rod Serling's rise to fame in the Golden Age of Television, and his descent into his personal Twilight Zone.

We recognize him as our sharply dressed, cigarette-smoking tour guide of The Twilight Zone, but the entertainment business once regarded him as the "Angry Young Man" of Television. Before he became the revered Master of Science fiction, Rod Serling was just a writer struggling to make his voice heard. He vehemently challenged the networks and viewership alike to expand their minds and standards—rejecting notions of censorship, racism and war. But it wasn't until he began to write about real world enemies in the guise of aliens and monsters that people lent their ears. In doing so, he pushed the television industry to the edge of glory, and himself to the edge of sanity.

THE GOLDEN VOICE

Gregory Cahill (Writer), Kat Baumann (Artist)

Formats: 19 x 26 cm, softcover, color, 200 pages, one shot, October 2023
Rights sold: English, French, Serbian

The true story of beloved Cambodian singer Ros Serey Sothea, whose "Golden Voice" helped define Cambodia's Golden Age of music until her mysterious disappearance in the killing fields of Pol Pot's Khmer Rouge.

Developed in partnership with Sothea's family. There is a saying in Cambodia: Music is the soul of a nation. Perhaps no one embodied that spirit more than Ros Serey Sothea, a young woman who would forever change the landscape of Cambodian music as the Queen with the Golden Voice.

From a humble rice farmer to nationally recognized singer, Sothea's success captured the hearts of the Khmer people. Throughout her career, she recorded over 500 songs, her signature angelic voice soaring over genres from traditional ballads to psychedelic rock and beyond.

As the Cambodian civil war raged, Sothea's singing career continued to flourish, even when she served in the army as one of the country's first female paratroopers. After years of bloody conflict, the communist Khmer Rouge seized control, murdering artists and destroying their music, bringing Cambodia's golden age into a dark era of silence. Sothea's fate is unknown.

Rights sold: English, French

Imagine your entire extended family goes on a pilgrimage to Poland to reclaim your grandfather's legacy...and you find out about it on Facebook!
Welcome to Malka Solomon's life: broke and recently divorced, she's also her family's self-appointed historian. After guilt-tripping herself a ticket as the self-appointed "Keeper of the Family Archives," it soon becomes clear that the family has drifted apart, and everyone has brought more baggage than suitcases. When confronted with their reflection in the ruins of their grandfather's old mill, they realize that they've been running away from themselves—and each other—for far too long. As they travel together across the Old Country of their ancestors—from Auschwitz to ruined synagogues to an Elton John concert—they realize that maybe they're still a family after all.

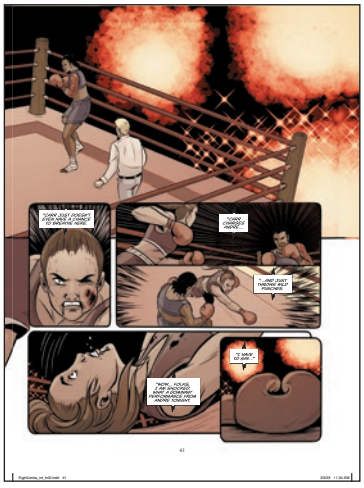

EIGHT LIMBS

Stephanie Phillips (Writer), Giulia Lalli (Artist)

Formats: 19 x 26 cm, softcover, color, 128 pages, one shot, April 2021
Rights sold: English, French

This graphic novel is the ultimate love letter to the funky pop-rock sound that Prince made legendary.
When Prince burst onto the music scene in 1978, he put Minneapolis on the map. Consequently, many local acts follow the trail he blazed. This is the story of Starchild, a group that almost made it to stardom in 1983, led by one young woman whose desire to change the world with her music was far bigger than herself. Through Starchild's journey, MPLS Sound chronicles, with a unique perspective, the influence of a musical genius and the rebirth of a city.

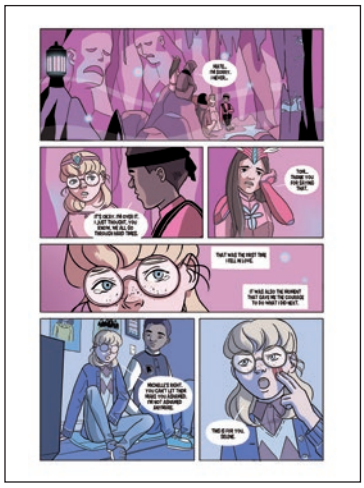

PAINTED

Kev Sherry and Helen Mullane (Writer)
& Katia Vecchio (Artist)

Formats: 19 x 26 cm, softcover, color, 120 pages, one shot, October 2021
Rights sold: French

A young supermodel reflects on a series of events that, as a teenager, brought power… then tragedy.

Selene and Sophie are typical high school girls. One day, when Selene's period is used to make her the target of schoolwide humiliation, she realizes it's time for a revolution. Inspired by the Celtic face-painted warriors of her ancestry, Selene sets out with her friends to challenge the patriarchy. But when the ferocity of the real world comes crashing in, the girls' identities are shattered, and they are left to pick up the pieces all on their own. Painted deals unapologetically with bullying, violence, language, drug use, death, the bonds of sisterhood and friendship, and—above all—the power of friendship.

GHOSTS OF SCIENCE PAST

Joseph Sieracki (Writer), Jesse Lonergan (Artist)

Formats: 17 x 23 cm, hard cover, color, 128 pages, one shot, April 2021
Rights sold: English, French

A teenager desperate to pass his Biology final is visited in the night, Christmas Carol-style, by the spirits of some of the greatest scientists in history.

Trevor suffers from an ailment common among high schoolers: apathy. He snoozes through science class, distrusts his teachers, and would rather stay up all night playing video games than studying for his upcoming science quiz. With an "F" in Biology looming ominously in Trevor's near future unless he finds motivation, Trevor's parents take away his video games for a week in an effort to make him buckle down and study. When he opens up his book, however, an epic adventure begins, and the greatest scientists in history become his guides—literally!

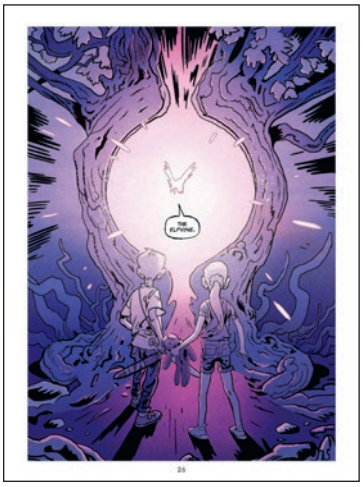

THE OATES & THE ELPHYNE

Michael Walsh

Formats: 17 x 23 cm, hardcover, color, 128 pages, one shot, June 2022
Rights sold: English, French

After the Oates family moves to Newfoundland, a dark creature kidnaps Beth, the youngest child. To find her, Beth's siblings Ben and Lynn venture into a world called the Elphyne.

The Oates family moves to their ancestral home in Newfoundland following a tragic incident. They are welcomed by their grandmother and their grieving cousin. Shortly after arriving, Beth, the youngest sibling, is kidnapped by a dark creature. Her older siblings set out to find her and bring her back, finding themselves in the Elphyne—a magical world that exists between the ordinary world and the afterlife. In the Elphyne, the imagination of children has the power to shape everything around them. Ben and Lynn, along with some new allies, must travel through the Elphyne to confront The Dark King, a mysterious being whose arrival has started to corrupt the Elphyne in frightening and unexpected ways. It is up to Beth's siblings to rescue her from his clutches before all of the Elphyne is lost!

SHY NINJA

Formats: 17.5 x 23.5 cm, softcover, color, 128 pages, one shot, March 2021
Rights sold: English, French

Rena's social anxiety disorder isolates her from other kids until she becomes...a Ninja.

Deep down, Rena wants to be like all the other kids—playing outside after school, meeting up with friends at the movies—but instead, she finds herself avoiding social interaction at all costs. That is, until a Ninja Master shows up at her door and tells her that she can harness her anxiety to fight the forces of evil! Oh, and did he mention that she's the hero of a 500-year-old prophecy? But Rena's dreams become nightmares when she realizes that she's being trained to become a... master villain! Written by the father/daughter team of Rick and Adara Sanchez, with art by Arianne Florean (Star Wars Adventures), Shy Ninja is a coming of age story that speaks to all of us!

URBAN LEGENDZ

Nick Bruno and Paul Downs (Writers), Michael Yates (Artist)

Formats: 15 x 23 cm, hardcover, color, 112 pages, one shot, June 2019
Rights sold: French

When classic urban legends start terrorizing present-day Brooklyn, a motley crew of kids must fight to protect their city from the ruthless creatures trying to reclaim it.

After his mother's death, Dwayne's life is uprooted when he moves into the shabby Brooklyn apartment where she grew up. Overshadowed by his too-cool-for-school older brother and pressured by his policeman father, Dwayne often feels out of place. But his personal problems are cast aside when he gets suckered into joining a new crew of young vigilantes devoted to solving a series of sinister cases involving mysterious monsters that have been wreaking havoc throughout the city.

GREGORY AND THE GARGOYLES (GARGOUILLES) · COMPLETED SERIES

D-P Filippi, J. Etienne (vol. 1) & Silvio Camboni (vol. 2-7)

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 48–56 pages, 7 volume series, one story per album
Rights sold: Chinese (Simplified), English, French, Italian, Polish, Valencian

The fantasy adventure series of a young boy's travels through a long-forgotten world where magic still rules. Young Gregory grows unhappy and restless when his father moves the entire family into an old family home in a new neighborhood. While awake in his bed, a glimmer from the floor attracts Gregory's attention. He discovers a medallion on which there is a drawing of the great church that sits opposite his new residence. Bullied for being new, and ignored at home, Gregory decides to explore the church and the giant stone statue that rests atop of it. During his visit, the medallion begins to shine intensely and, with a flash, Gregory is hurled back to the 17th century, where gargoyles, sorcerers and magical beings live in harmony and magic.

Rights sold: English, French

The fun-filled and extraordinary adventures of Brüssli, halfboy half-dragon.
Beak-faced Brussli is bullied by the village children. Curious about his true origins, the dauntless "Dragon Boy," sets off on a quest for adventure and discovery. What he finds, however, turns his world upside down and puts him face-to-face with a unique cast of fantastical fairies, talking rabbits, wily wolves, battle-hardened nuns, demonic beings, and much, much more, in this hysterical and heartwarming comedy adventure.

BASIL & VICTORIA · COMPLETED SERIES

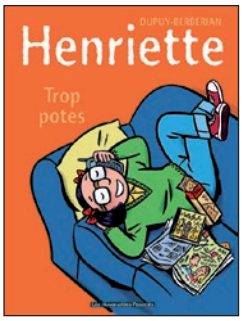

Yann & Edith

Formats: 24 x 32 cm, hardcover, color, 48 pages, 5 volume series
Rights sold: English, Finnish, French, Spanish

A humorous Victorian social fable told in a pure Dickensian tradition.
Follow the titular pair of street orphans on adventures far and wide. London, 1887. While the British Empire is at its peak, and influences the majority of the world, most of London still lives amid poverty, disease, and crime. Basil and Victoria are two of the thousands of orphaned street urchins who survive by hustling, selling rats, and sleeping on the docks. Helped by Cromwell, their faithful bulldog, the trio travel from the mean streets of Whitechapel to exotic distant lands, meeting famous, and infamous, historical and literary figures along the way, as they lovingly bicker and squabble the entire time!
